Many Expected To Attend Burley School Tuesday

Increasing income from tobacco acreage will be the topic of the Tobacco School to be held at the Court House on Tuesday, February 20. Sponsored by the Community Development Program Tobacco Commission, the meeting will last from 10 a. m. till 2 p. m. The Commission feels that the latest information on culture, fertilization, handling and marketing will enable Haywood growers to realize even more than the million dollars a year which tobacco currently brings.

During the week, a series of day and night meetings is scheduled. The day meetings will include demonstrations on controlling weeds in tobacco plant beds with chemicals. The night meetings, which will include a movie, will be different from either the day meetings or the School on Tuesday. Topic at that time will be promotion of both tobacco and the two-million dollar beef industry, with specific reference to such questions as "How much cash can I clear?" and "How much land do I need?"

Speakers at the School will be R. R. Bennett, Extension Tobacco Specialist from State College, speaking on Tobacco Culture; H. R. Garriss, Extension plant Pathologist, on Diseases; George D. Jones, Extension Entomologist, on Insects; and Dr. Luther Shaw, on recommendations of the State Experiment Station.

Farm meetings during the day are scheduled as follows: Wednesday, February 21, 10 a. m.—A. J. McCracken, Lake Junaluska.

Wednesday, February 21, 1:30 p. m.—Glenn Boyd, Jonathan Creek. Thursday, February 22, 10 a. m.—A. W. Ferguson, Crabtree.

Thursday, February 22, 1:30 p. m.—Mark Ferguson, Fines Creek. Friday, February 23, 10 a. m.—Henry Garner, Bethel.

Friday, February 23, 1:30 p. m.—Fonzo Mann, Hominy. Night meetings will be held at 7:30 every evening as follows: Monday, February 19, Bethel School.

Tuesday, February 20, Rock Hill School. Wednesday, February 21, Fines Creek School.

Thursday, February 22, Beaverdam School. Friday, February 23, Crabtree-Iron Duff School.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Holland underwent a tonsil operation on Monday.

Mrs. Claude Singleton was hostess to a group of ladies of the Riverside Community at a quilting party on Tuesday. Eight quilts made in the past two weeks is a record of the group, which is sponsored by the W. M. U. Mrs. Frank Sorrells will be hostess at next Tuesday's meeting.

Sgt. Wallace Pressley of the U. S. Air Force is now stationed at Mildenhall, England.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson. Miss Geraldine Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reef Huffman, and Mr. Frank Inman were married February 17.

Wide Highways To Link African Countries

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—An international commission is laying plans to link Africa south of the Sahara with transcontinental highways.

An inter-locking system of east-west and north-south routes will give free access to all parts of southern and central Africa within a few years.

22,000,000 U.S. Families Own Their Own Homes

CHICAGO—More than 22,000,000 families own their own homes in the cities and towns of the United States, the president of the U. S. Savings and Loan League says.

The figure is nearly twice that of 1940. Henry A. Bubb, president of the league, urged a 10 year "crusade for home ownership" to create what he called "the most effective force for basic political conservatism that exists in the country."

Bubb called attention to the recent election as evidence that the impact of homeowners had been felt more than ever before. "Neither communism or socialism can ever win in a nation of homeowners," he said.

The Maurey The Merrier

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. —(AP)—Two Maureys still remain in Penn State wrestling garb while a third watches as spectator.

Don Maurey is beginning his second year as a varsity grappler. Younger brother, Jerry, is the standout member of a crack freshman team which will furnish the nucleus of the varsity outfit. The spectator brother is Jim Maurey, captain of the Lion varsity last year and Eastern titleholder in the 145-pound class. Jim, a graduate, now has a teaching-coaching role at a nearby high school.

These inter-territorial routes will be about 10 feet wide, or 20 feet for double lanes. Cars probably will have to maintain a 40-mph-per-hour minimum speed.

Soars 42,000 Feet In A Glider Plane

AP Newsfeatures

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—The man who has floated higher than anyone (official recognition pending) is William S. Ivans, Jr., of suburban La Mesa.

The instruments on his glider plane showed that he attained an altitude of 42,000 feet Dec. 31, 1950, in a flight over California's Owens Valley. The record of 33,500 feet is held by John Robinson of Los Angeles.

Ivans, an aeronautical engineer, said he managed to glide into an updraft after releasing his glider from a tow plane at 13,000 feet.

The soaring flight, which lasted three hours and ten minutes, was the achievement of an ambition of several years by the young engineer.

His mark has been submitted for official approval as a new record to the Soaring Society of America, the National Aeronautical Association and the Federation Aeronautique Internationale in Paris.

The name "meerschaum" is German for "seafoam" which it resembles. It is found as a wet mass buried in clayey earth and when brought to the surface may be cut with a knife, but when dried is light enough to float on water.

The taiga is one of the greatest forest areas of the world—some 4,000 miles long and from 1,000 to 2,000 miles wide, across Siberia and consisting principally of coniferous trees.

Polio Treatment Called Family Affair

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The battle against polio is a family affair, says Dr. Robert L. Bennett, head of the department of physical medicine at Emory University Hospital.

Many children stricken with the disease, he states, must be treated over a period of years, and therefore the parent must learn the importance of both rest, and planned activity for the child. The doctor recommends that parents help the stricken child adjust socially as well as physically in the home environment.
