Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Jean Ann Bradley has just been announced.

Barbara Ann Boyd To Be Married To Erwin Burgin

Announcement of an engagement was the occasion for a buffet supper given by Mrs. Ralph Prevost on Friday night. The couple honored were Miss Barbara Ann Boyd and Mr. Erwin Burgin, whose wedding will take place next month. Miss Boyd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Boyd. Mr. Burgin's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Burgin. During the evening Mrs. Prevost, a cousin of the bride-elect, presented her with her crystal service. A game of Canasta followed, with Mr. Walter Talaferro receiving the prize for high score, and Mr. Henry Clayton the consolation.

Junaluska PTA Hears Pending School Laws

Junaluska PTA met Tuesday, Feb. 20, with a record crowd. The Rev. George Mehahey of Dellwood Baptist church, conducted the devotional. He stressed cooperation on the part of teachers, home and church in building citizens for the future with the leadership of God. Lawrence Leatherwood, chairman of the Haywood County Legislative committee, spoke on legislative matters, pointing out that parents and teachers would be alert to the happenings in Raleigh. He pointed out also that copies of pending bills were available, with the names of the law makers attached. It was mutually agreed that informed citizens, especially parents, were more effective voters. It was further agreed that politics had no place in matters concerning the welfare of the school children of North Carolina. Members agreed that personalities and personal feeling should be left out, and the betterment of future educational systems should be the first consideration. Parents were urged to let officials know that they were expected to follow such course of non-partisan and non-personal interest, putting the schools' welfare first through more democratic forms of leadership. Mrs. R. L. Evans is president of the PTA group, and Mrs. Willard Moody is secretary.
