Business And Professional Women Enjoy Second Anniversary Party

An evening of fun marked the observance of the second anniversary of the Business and Professional Woman's Club here Tuesday night. Many of the members dressed as two-year-olds, and games appropriate to that age were played. Here they are shown, in the happy birthday mood, as they gathered around the birthday cake, and punch bowl for refreshments. Mrs. Edith P. Alley is president. (Staff Photo).

B.&P.W. Club Celebrates Second Birthday

A "Kid's Party" motif highlighted the second-anniversary meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Waynesville on Tuesday night. The theme was carried out not only in decorations, program, and refreshments, but in the costumes of the guests. Mrs. M. G. Stanny received a prize for being the most typical two-year old, and Miss Frances Rose took the honors as most comical.

The program included an amateur radio show, which was recorded and played back later in the evening. News bulletins were distributed during the social hour. In charge of the program was the Radio and News Service Committee, composed of Mrs. Ben Phillips, Mrs. Joe Stanelli, and Miss Mary Cornwell.

After the party, Mrs. Doyle Alley, president, held a brief business session.
