

The Haywood High School Student of the Week

By ANNE BISCHOFF

Seventeen-year-old Maxine Randolph can usually be found at Canton High School where she is a senior this year.

Maxine is the daughter of Mrs. C. C. Randolph, of Canton, Route One.

"Aha Daba Honeymoon" is her favorite song and her favorite pastime is reading.

A great movie fan, we find her favorite movie actress to be June Allison and her favorite actor to be John Wayne. Usually she wears something green because that happens to be her selection of all the colors.

This year she is taking English, History, Spanish, and typing at Canton Hi and is also assistant business-manager of "The Black Bear", the high school annual.

This year she is also program chairman of the Beta Club, and a member of the Student Council.

Three years ago Maxine was best citizen for the ninth grade, an honor well-thought-of around Canton Hi.

Last year she was president of the Latin Club.

Maxine is certainly an attractive girl, and she is certainly well-liked by her many friends at Canton Hi.

Her plans for the future are to enter Berea College in Kentucky next year and then decide just what she wants to do after that.

She'll probably go far in this world with her winning personality and here's hoping that she does!

Annual May Dance Slated For May 4

Plans for the annual May Dance to be held at the Waynesville Armory Friday night, May 4, are nearing completion at Waynesville High School.

Miss Betty Noland and Linton Palmer, presidents of the Tally-Ho Club and the Student Council, respectively, have announced that the sponsoring organizations are putting the finishing touches on the plans.

The dance is to begin at eight o'clock and last until twelve.

During the evening, Miss Mouriene Carver, chosen by the students in an election earlier this year, will be crowned May Queen.

Also the Queen's Court will be presented, and there will be a floor show for the queen and her court.

Teddy Martin and his orchestra will furnish music for the affair.

Advance sale tickets can be purchased from members of the Tally-Ho Club and also from members of the Student Council. Advance sale tickets are $1.00.

The play, "A Feather in His Hat," is a three act comedy by Walt Draper.

Miss Mary Gills, member of the faculty at Canton High School is serving as director of the production, and Miss Virginia Cline, member of the senior class, is serving as Student Director.

The twelve members of the cast are Anita Brooks, Carolyn Lime, Betty Morrow, Pat Hipps, Dorothea June Gidney, Marie Miller, Joan

Father Is A Freshman Coach

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — (AP) — A unique father and son combination coaches Yale's lacrosse teams. The switch is that the son is the varsity coach while the father is the freshman coach.

Thirty-two year old Bill Harkness, the varsity mentor, started his Yale job in 1949. Bill Harkness, the elder, has been coaching both hockey and lacrosse for many years at various schools and colleges.

Irene, Bill Branson, Mack Barrett, Larry Scruggs, and Neil Rhymer. Admission to the play will be 35 and 60 cents.

Wildlife Comm Hear Sportsmen

Sportsmen will have an opportunity to express their views on 1951-1952 hunting regulations in a meeting in Shreve on May 20. P. Patton, Executive Director of the State Wildlife Resources Commission, announced today the third series of these hearings. Nine wildlife districts would be on that date.

"The Wildlife Commission established a policy of sportsmen an opportunity to express their views on the regulations and bag limits should be set for the hunting seasons." Patton is the third year such hearings have been conducted.

Prior to holding the public hearings, the Commission will key members of its field offices consultations on setting the regulations, and on May 7 will establish tentative regulations. These tentative rules will be sent at each of the time for discussion with sportsmen.

TEEN TALK

Dear Judy,

One of the most important occasions in a girl's life is her 16th birthday. Some believe that a girl is not a lady until she is 18, others do not credit her with mature status until she is 21. But as every 15-year-old girl knows, she is going to be a young lady when she is 16 years old.

There is no other birthday so respected by girls as the 16th. Other natal days will tick their way off the calendar scarcely noticed. But the 16th birthday is associated with so many pleasant things that are privileges of older girls, that young girls can scarcely wait for the big occasion. Girls have been known to get such "firsts" as bras, girdles, silk stockings, a weekly allowance, permanent waves, and ruffled panties on this fine day. It opens a lovely new vista for darling daughters and the world is seen suddenly through rose-colored glasses.

Great stress has been put on the "sweet 16 and never been kissed" theme—and what little girl with romance in mind doesn't dream that her fairy prince is going to gallop up on his white horse to greet her on that super-special day? So it is inevitable that on that day daughter plans a birthday party with dreamy eyes and a light heart.

Plans for a "sweet 16" party have been known to involve the longest range planning, afforded any similar venture.

One girl wrote recently: "I am going to celebrate my 16th birthday in about a year and wondered if you could supply me with any ideas now so I can get a head start. I am thinking of making all the favors and decorations for the party, so I think it would be good to get started now."

"It is going to be a grown-up party, so I don't think we will want to play the games we have been playing right along at other parties. Do you have any ideas?"

I always feel that the 16th birthday party is the time to dispense with games. Games are fun for the young-uns and even the old-uns. But a party on this great day should be more of a "get-acquainted" party, to say:

"See, I'm all grown up and have a permanent wave and I can dance and wear silk stockings and hold hands and goodness knows what else."

Any young swain worth his salt will show up for the party in his best Sunday suit, so the entire affair takes on youthful magnificence.

Dancing is an ideal way to get acquainted and is a much better ice-breaker than any game one can think of. Sixteen-year-olds can't dance with the aplomb of a Fred Astaire or Ginger Rogers just naturally. They are learning their way around at this point and half the fun is stepping on each other's toes. It is only by practice that one becomes a good dancer, and after one has managed to rise and dance at one party, dancing is no longer a bugaboo.

This crowd will take more to a menu of fried chicken, chicken a la king or steak and French fried potatoes than to old stand-bys they liked before. It's strange what growing up can do to one's taste buds.

Sixteen is, of course, the charmed number of guests for this special day. But the more the merrier, if you feel obligated to ask more than the usual number.

The only decorations for a party of this kind should be those on the

"Smart Buy's Roadmaster"

TIREBALL POWERED

It started the day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance—and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling—the power—the features—the fabrics—the cloud-soft cushions—and the prices—and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle—a joy to ride in—and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflo Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through broad and uncluttered glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with high visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part—a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.
