The Settlement in Canaan

After Moses' death, the Lord made Joshua leader of His people, to lead them over Jordan into the land He had promised they should have for their own, promising Joshua that He, the Lord, would be with him.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Joshua 1:1-9; 14; 24; Judges 1-2; 21:25.

After conquering the land that had been promised them, the Israelites drew lots to assign land to each family. Caleb asked that he be given the land of Horeb to conquer, and it was given to him.

"Stricken in age," Joshua called the people to him, reminded them of all the Lord had done for them, and asked that they be true to Him. "And the people said unto Joshua, The Lord our God will we obey."

The Israelites did not destroy the people living in the conquered lands as they were ordered. They were worshippers of idols, and the Israelites too began to bow down to idols.

"Blessed Are the Peacemakers"
JESUS went up into a mountain, and His disciples came to Him. And He taught them, saying:
"Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.
"Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
"Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
"Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
"Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
"Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
"Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
"Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.
"Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
"Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you."
