Big Crowd Attends So. Clyde Meeting

MRS. MAUDE OSBORNE Mountaineer Reporter A large crowd attended the South Clyde Community meeting at Louisa Chapel on April 23. This meeting was one of the series being held in the various communities on the theme, "Your Family and Your Community—Today, Tomorrow." Guests were Miss Mary Cornwell, Wayne Franklin and Grover Dobbins. Besides showing slides illustrating how the individuals and farm families can work together, Miss Cornwell and Mr. Franklin assisted South Clyde Chairman William Osborne in explaining the community group insurance plan. Members of the committee appointed to solicit insurance members in each area are Sam Jackson, Mrs. Edwin Jackson, Mrs. Van Deaver, Mrs. Robert Lindsey, Mrs. Maude Osborne, Miss Katherine Osborne, Mrs. Curtis Rogers and Loyd Justice. Several songs were on the program: one by Miss Patricia Lindsey with Mrs. Kyle Lindsey at the piano, and others by the South Clyde Quartette. Members of the quartette are Billy Stamey, Loyd Justice, Mrs. Albert Justice, and Sarah Dee Justice. Mary Lee Justice is their accompanist at the piano. Mrs. Curtis Rogers led the devotional and also led in prayer.

An acute shortage of sheepherders is said to be a major factor in the decline of wool and lamb production of the United States.

West Pigeon To Enter WNC Community Contest; New Projects Reported

MRS. HORACE PEEK Mountaineer Reporter A number of reports on past accomplishments were heard, and plans for future projects were made at the April meeting of West Pigeon Community.

The Rev. Clyde L. Collins, chairman of the Bethel Cemetery committee, reported on the work completed, and suggested that people stay off the grass as much as possible until it is well started. He announced that the committee and the trustees of the cemetery are working out a plan for a trust fund for future upkeep of the grounds. He also expressed thanks for the wonderful response of the people in making donations.

Mr. Collins further announced that the work would soon begin on mail box posts for persons who need them. Erecting the posts will be a committee composed of Devere Harden, Walt Russell and H. M. Newsome. Mr. Collins also announced the slogans to be used on the entrance and exit signs of the community.

Mrs. Henry Garner, West Pigeon chairman, explained the Community Development contest for Western Carolina, and the group voted to enter.

Mrs. Garner then read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Pressley to Red Cross blood donors on the community-sponsored recruitment day. She said that the blood was shipped to Korea the Saturday afternoon it was given, in answer to an emergency call.

County Agents Wayne Corpening and Turner Cathey discussed the rural hospitalization plan now offered Haywood County.

Miss Mary Cornwell, Home Agent, and Messrs. Cathey and Corpening showed pictures on farm and home life.

Mr. Corpening announced that the out-of-state farm tour has been set for the last of July. The trip will be to Texas.

Hostesses for the meeting were the following ladies of Sonoma Road: Mrs. Jack Rigdon, Mrs. R. O. Kelly, Mrs. Clifton Terrell, Mrs. E. B. Rickman, Mrs. Noble White, Mrs. J. B. Rigdon, and Mrs. Calvin L. Bissett.

A minstrel will be presented by the Junior class of Bethel High School on Thursday evening, April 26. The proceeds will go toward the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Guy Pitts, who was injured in an automobile accident on Saturday, is recovering at his home.

Mrs. Thomas Singleton has underpinned her house and built new steps. Another house just underpinned is that of Clayborn Goodson, who has also built rock steps, screened the kitchen porch, and added an entrance room to the basement.

The community wishes to express its sympathy to the Johnson family in the recent loss of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Laura Johnson.

Rev. and Mrs. Calvin Bissett had as their weekend guests the Rev. Martin Perry of Bancroft Bible School, Kingsport, Tenn. Mr. Perry filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday at both morning and evening services.

Miss Emma Justice and Miss Inez Harris are on our sick list this week.

The Young People of the Bethel Baptist Church enjoyed a picture supper Monday night at Rhododendron Park, West Asheville. They had as guest speaker Mrs. James Stewart, a missionary in Europe who is now at home on leave. Leaders who went with the group were Rev. and Mrs. Calvin Bissett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Satterfield and Mrs. Horace Peek.

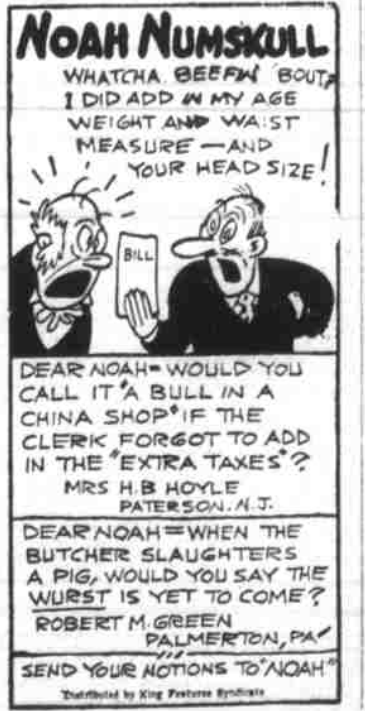

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sisk had as their dinner guests Sunday Mrs. Grover Swayngin and sons Tommy and Charles Sisk of West Asheville.

Parents Pick CAMDEN, N. J. — (AP) — If you want to go in the children's phonograph record business, don't worry about the children. It's the parents who count.

A survey conducted at the request of the Radio Corporation of America, showed that 90 per cent of all children's records are bought by parents. The kids, incidentally, don't accompany their parents 60 per cent of the time when children's records are bought.
