Unveiling Of Marker Set For 30th In Tryon

Plans have been completed for the unveiling of a marker at Tryon commemorating the signing of a treaty between Governor William Tryon and the Cherokee Indians, fixing the Western Frontier of North Carolina. The treaty was signed July 15, 1767.

The marker is being erected by the Unaka Chapter No. 2, North Carolina Society Daughters of the American Colonists, of which Mrs. R. N. Barber, Sr., is regent. It is of granite, about five feet high and will have a bronze tablet near the center.

The unveiling ceremony will take place Monday, April 30, at 12 o'clock noon, with Mrs. Barber, presiding.

Dr. C. C. Crittenden, director of the State Department of Archives, and D. Hiden Ramsey of Asheville will be the principal speakers. The unveiling will be by Mrs. Asbury Barnett of Asheville and Henry Bradley, Chief of the Cherokees.

Invitations have been sent to all civic and patriotic organizations in the district and a number of state and national officers of the D.A.C. are expected to attend the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ferguson are pictured at the reception following their wedding last Saturday afternoon in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Ferguson is the former Miss Juanita Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy S. Smith of Waynesville.

MRS. SANDERSON AT CONVALESCENT HOME

Mrs. Mary Logan Sanderson is now at Mrs. Teague's convalescent home on the Dellwood Road after spending ten days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thrower, at Hazelwood. Mrs. Sanderson has been ill with pneumonia and was a patient at Mission Hospital, Asheville.

Mrs. R. N. Barber returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where she attended the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She also attended national conventions of the Daughters of the American Colonists and other patriotic organizations.

Miss Juanita Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy S. Smith of Waynesville, was married to Hubert Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ferguson of Whittier, in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church, last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. J. E. Yountz, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows in the presence of members of the two families.

The altar was decorated with floor vases of white gladioli and seven-branched candelabra holding white candles.

Mrs. J. E. Yountz, pianist, presented a program of wedding music which included "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." "Through The Years" was played during the ceremony and the traditional marriages were used as pre-nuptial and recessional.

The couple entered the chapel together and were maitre-d'hotel. The bride wore a two-piece suit of blue tulle with white accessories and a corsage of tallman roses.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, wore a navy and white print with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Ferguson, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy with a corsage of pink carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

The residence was decorated throughout with white gladioli and white stock. The bride's table was covered with an embroidered white linen cloth and had a centerpiece of white gladioli, white violets, and fern, flanked with white tapers in silver holders. A two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a wedding ring, was at one end of the table.

Mrs. Neeson Smith, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ray Pressley, sister of the bride, directed the guests to the dining room. Others assisting were Mrs. Mabel Brown Abel, Mrs. Robert Boyd, and Miss Laura Dyer.

Around seventy guests attended. Mrs. Ferguson is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School and, at the time of her marriage, was employed in the Waynesville office of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

Mr. Ferguson received his education in the Sylva schools and served four years with the U. S. Army during World War II. He is now employed at the Dupont plant in Aiken, S. C.

The couple will reside in Augusta, Ga., following a wedding trip to Florida.

Librarians Are Attending State Meeting

Miss Johnston will be featured on a television program from Greensboro from 5 to 5:15 p.m. today, for a discussion of County Library Service and What State Aid Means to Public Libraries.

Phone Employees Honored For Long Service

Telephone company officials gathered Tuesday evening to honor five Waynesville employees for service ranging from ten to thirty years. Senior guest of honor was Miss Ida Jean Brown, with thirty years' service, all of it in Waynesville. Except for the few days off necessitated by deaths in her family, Miss Brown has never missed a day at her operator's post.

Others who received service pins were Miss Hester C. Davis, Mrs. Syble S. Hall, and Mrs. Fay Toy, all of whom have been with the company twenty-five years. Miss Miriam Phillips, due to receive a ten-year pin, was unable to be present.

The awards were presented by J. K. Gray, Traffic Supervisor for the State of North Carolina; R. M. Van Hoose, Traffic Manager of the Asheville district; and Lovell Smith, Asheville district manager.

Present at the dinner were three employees with five years' service. They were Miss Martha Ferguson, Mrs. Anne F. Fie, and Miss Elizabeth Davis. A fourth, Mrs. Mildred Toy, was out of town.

Maggie P. T. A. Names Officers

New officers for the Maggie Parent-Teacher Association were elected Tuesday night as follows: president, Mrs. Cliff White; vice-president, Mrs. Herbert Gibson, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. Vinson Henry; and treasurer, Mrs. Robert White. Virgil Smith, retiring president, presided at the meeting and arrangements were completed for the organization to furnish basketball uniforms to the school's teams.
