

Bride To Be Is Honored At Clyde

Miss Angela Anderson, of Highlands and Clyde, who will be married to Mr. J. E. Herdin on August 19, was presented a white Bible by the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Clyde Baptist Church on Monday evening.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. C. Chapman, organist. Miss Betty Joyce Morgan, YWA president, introduced Mrs. Claude Brown who made a talk on "The Christian Home" following selections of Scripture and poetry read by members of the Auxiliary.

The charge was delivered by Mrs. Sidney Haynes, YWA Counselor, after which Miss Leanna Harris sang "Bless This House," by Brahe. The members of the Auxiliary, holding white candles entwined with ivy, formed a circle around Miss Anderson while Mrs. Roy R. Medford, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, made the presentation of the Bible.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served in the Recreation Hall of the church. Green candles burned on the tea table which was covered with a white damask cloth and centered with a bowl of white dahlias.

The members of the Missionary Society, which fosters the Y.W.A. were special guests. Three Intermediate G. A. girls, Sammy Kay Haynes, Joretta Medford, and Lou Ann Osborne, served as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hill and son, Bobby, of Bartow, Florida were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilson at their summer home on Johnson Hill.

Mrs. Edith Robinson and Miss Florence Yonce of Hollywood, Florida have arrived to spend the remainder of the summer at their home on Johnson Hill.

Mrs. R. Stuart Roberson and son, LeRoy, are leaving tomorrow for a visit to relatives in Ashokie.
