

Hominy Residents Asked Bring Plenty Of Food' Community Field Day

LLOYD R. JONES
Mountaineer Reporter

Hominy residents planning Hominy Field Day on Friday at Jones Creek has asked Hominy Community members to bring a basket of food to the Hominy Community Center. Lunch will be served at 9:30 a.m. at the Hominy Community Center. "It doesn't make any difference what you bring, just so you bring a whole lot of it." Persons who do not have a way to get their food to the church may call 3043 to have someone pick it up before the lunch hour. The tour will start at the forks of Beaverdam and Hominy Community roads at 9:30 a.m.

One Good Thing Leads Children To The Real Thing

At the regular Story Hour last Thursday at 4 p.m., the children heard stories about firetrucks. Immediately afterwards they visited the Fire Department to see the real thing. Shown at the rear is Chief Clem Fitzgerald and on his left Miss Margaret Johnston, Librarian of Haywood County Library, and Mrs. Ben Phillips, representing the Waynesville Homemaker's Club, sponsors of the Story Hour. ### Pets and Dolls To Be Judged In Canton Contests

The cub scouts of Canton are co-operating with the girl scouts in sponsoring a pet show at the football stadium and a doll show at the armory on Friday, August 24. The two shows are part of the 45th annual Labor Day and Fall Festival held in Canton. Judges for the pet show are Miss Pearl Lesley Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Rugg. The classifications are: curliest tail, longest ears, shortest legs, whitest, blackest, longest, shortest, noisest, most expressive eyes, most spots, most unusual, most tricks, best trained, and best cared for. The doll show will have as judges, Mrs. Alexander Gardener, Mrs. W. H. Hyatt, and Mrs. H. C. Ferguson. Dolls will be classified as to the prettiest, the largest, the smallest, the oldest, the most unusual, the most antique, the best dressed, the best collection, the doll that most resembles its owner, bride and groom dolls, and dolls from foreign countries. Prizes will be awarded, and anyone is eligible if registered in advance.
