

Morning Star CDP Plans Field Days

BARBARA SETZER
Mountaineer Reporter

The Morning Star Community Development meeting last week made plans for the West Pigeon and Flies Creek field days. The program opened and closed with songs by the group, led by Lewin Medford. The devotional was given by Paris Benfield and the prayer by R. L. Rhinehart. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Troy Burnette, Mrs. Paris Benfield, Mrs. Eldon Burnette and Mrs. Paul Fowler.

Morning Star and South Clyde ball teams played two games Tuesday at the morning Star school. Morning Star won both games, the girls' score standing at 19-8 and the boys' 9-0.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burnette of Raleigh are visiting here for two weeks. Sunday night they were entertained at a picnic supper at Bent Creek. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Medford, Mrs. Laura Reynolds and Bobbie Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Burnette, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Smathers and children and Mr. and Mrs. Tally Wilson.

The Rev. and Mrs. Maxwell and children are visiting Mr. Maxwell's parents in Georgia.

J. O. Coleman, father of Mrs. Noel Fisher, is improving at his home on Morning Star road.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Floyd and daughter recently moved from Morning Star to Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Pawnee Duval and children of Asheville are visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Burnette had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pressley and Mrs. J. R. McGee and Sandra McGee, all of Candler.

Freda Elliott of Franklin, a niece of D. C. Hall, has come to Morning Star to live.

Joan of Arc
Henry Chapu's 19th century Joan of Arc, now in Paris' Luxembourg Museum, is one of the finest of numerous Joans, helping to shape a trend to carved likenesses of specific women of renown. Abroad, they come from the Victoria Memorial in front of Buckingham Palace, showing the seated British queen surrounded by symbolic figures, to the statue of Vimoutiers, France, honoring Marie Harel, creator of Camembert cheese in 1761.

Happy Children Hold Reading Certificates Won This Summer

Iron Duff Homecoming Day Includes Memorial Service

MRS. ROY B. MEDFORD

The Homecoming Day in Iron Duff Sunday, held at Davis Chapel, was largely attended, with an estimated 500 to 600 people present. The Rev. Jarvis Teague of Marshall preached the sermon in the morning. Special music for the service was given by Roxie Crawford, Sybil Bradshaw, Maxine Medford and Polly K. McElroy, accompanied at the piano by Mattie Sue Medford.

In the afternoon the Rev. Malcolm Williamson of Waynesville had charge of the memorial service. Candles were lighted in memory of Mrs. Lora Davis, Lee Stevenson, Hugh Stevenson, Francis Elaine Downs, Grover Hooker, Albert Hooker, Albert Jolly and Loyd Ross.

After this service a duet was given by Joe Medford and daughter Joan. The Franklin Quartette sang, and Miss Rosalind Ammons rendered a solo. Talks were made by several people who had at one time lived in Iron Duff. The members of Davis Chapel were greatly praised for the remodeling of the Chapel.

Homecoming Day is an annual affair. It will be held next year at the Antioch Baptist Church.

The W. S. C. S. of Davis Chapel met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Grady Davis. The topic, "The Last for which the First was Made," was given by Mrs. T. C. Davis, Mrs. Charles Medford, Mrs. Grady Davis, Mrs. F. M. Davis, Mrs. R. B. Medford and Mrs. J. R. Caldwell. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Kinsey Palmer.

The following have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Y. R. Davis for the past week: Mr. Horace
