

U. N. TRUCE TEAM CALLED TO TOKYO

AN URGENT SUMMONS from Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, United Nations Commander, has brought Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy and Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodes, U.N. negotiators at Kaesong, to a lengthy conference with the Supreme Commander in his Tokyo office. Meanwhile, in Korea, the Communists have agreed to Ridgway's conditions for resumption of the truce talks, halted for "neutrality violations." (International)

Cecil Community Planning Program

MRS. J. EDGAR BURNETTE Mountaineer Reporter

A program for the Community Development of Cecil is being planned, to take place in the near future.

Mrs. Floyd Buckner and granddaughter, Linda Ledbetter, of Weaverville, were the guests last week of the former's brother, Harvey Hargrove, and his family.

Mrs. Lizzie Singleton has been ill at her home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Francis are spending a few days this week at Duke Hospital in Durham, where the former is a patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Huffman and family have recently moved into the Carrie Deaver home.

Clyde Metcalf won the prize at the Intermediates' "Tacky party" Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Reece. He was dressed as a girl, with high heels, lipstick and all. (Even had some men fooled on the way to the party, we understand.)

Miss Lucy Clark is somewhat improved this week. She was ill at her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harkins and Misses Jenny Mae and Emma Sue Huskey visited Pvt. Roy Smathers at Fort Jackson, S. C., last week end.

Mrs. Ollie Layman and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hargrove made up a party attending the Cherokee drama Saturday evening.

The J. E. Burnettes are building a barn and demolishing the old log one.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Layman, Jr., announce the birth of a son on August 20. Mrs. Layman is the former Miss Virginia Ivey.

Mrs. Jim Miller is still on the sick list and by doctor's orders must take it easy. (Wonder if she does, though.)

A song program was given Sunday evening by the Adult groups of Riverside Church. The Rev. Mr. Erwin also gave the stories of the hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Nearer My God to Thee," which were sung by the congregation.

Smallest Republic San Marino, the oldest and smallest republic in the world, is about one-tenth the size of New York City. It is surrounded by Italy.
