Children's Choir To Sing With Festival Chorus At Lake Junaluska Friday

The Institute on Church Music now in progress at Lake Junaluska will reach its climax Friday night when a choral concert will be presented at 8 p. m. under the direction of Drs. Carl Mueller and Roberta Bitgood. The Festival Chorus of 70 voices, made up of those in attendance at the Institute, will be assisted by a children's choir of local young people.

Considerable interest is attached to this first concert appearance of the group, which has been singing at children's vespers during the summer. It is directed by Mrs. Wayne White of Leesburg, Fla., and by Richard Crowder.

Members of the choir are Cecile Thebaut, Mimi Munson, Betsy Searcy, Carol Garrison, Webb Garrison, Sonny White, Valerie White, Randall Kincaid, Paul Stoppenback, Jeanette Joiner, Billy Cloy, Ormond Hardin, Charles Gidney, Davis Ensley, Bobby Ensley, Robert Walker, Skipper Sloan, Lee Walker, Lee Hamilton, Mary Harriet Wiggins, Judy Henderson, Elizabeth Herbert, Jay Ferguson, Carol Wilson, Rene Chipley, Kathryn Ann Wilson, Ann Cathy and Woody Westmoreland.

The program is planned on the theme, "The Church Year in Song."

Legion Post Plans Annual Picnic At Camp Hope Sun.

The annual picnic of American Legion Post 47 will be held Sunday afternoon at Camp Hope, which is on the Brevard road near Crusc. Hazelwood Veterans are planning to attend.

Plans announced are that the group will leave from in front of the American Legion Hall at 2 p. m. Anyone desiring transportation can meet there to get it.

Supper will be served at 5 p. m., and everyone is requested to bring their own picnic basket. Cold drinks will be provided by the Club.

All veterans are invited to bring lunches and join the fun.

AT VALLEY VIEW

Visitors at the Valley View Farm of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hembree include Professor Robert A. Chapman of Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Mrs. Chapman, and their daughter Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Briley and daughter of Oakland, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dollar of Tampa, Fla.; and Mrs. J. C. Mills and grandson of Wigham, Ga.

Joe DiMaggio has played on more winning World Series teams than any player in major league history.

and includes anthems suitable to the various seasons, such as Lent, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas, as well as special occasions. One of these anthems will be sung by the children's choir alone, another by both choirs combined, and the rest of the program by the Festival Chorus.

The public is invited to attend this concert, as well as the recital by faculty and guest artists Thursday evening at 8 p. m., and the Hymn Festival Sunday evening at 8 p. m. All these services will be held at the auditorium on the Assembly grounds.

Hominy, Saunook Field Day Hosts

This week's community field days will end with one Friday and one Saturday, with next week's tours beginning on Tuesday. On Friday Hominy Community will be hosts to Jonathan Creek-Cove Creek. Saturday Cruso will visit Saunook; and on Tuesday Ratcliffe Cove will tour Center Pigeon.

The Hominy tour will include the new Plains Methodist Church, as well as the homes or projects of Vinson Worley, Willis Hips, Hugh Keener, F. C. Henn, Derris Clark, Robert Holland, Wilson Trantham, Fred Mann, Mrs. Sallie Mann and Porter Broyles. Dinner will be served at the Harmony Grove; and the recreational program will take place in Fonzo Mann's pasture.

A new industry and a well known one will be among the stops at Saunook Saturday. The group will inspect Hallman's ceramics, newly established, and will later see the Barber and Harper Eveanson orchards. Also featured will be the homes of James Garrett, Charles Beck, Jarvis Allison, and the Pleasant Balsam Baptist Church and the State Fish Hatchery. Lunch and recreation will be at the Saunook school.

On Tuesday Ratcliffe Cove visitors will have an opportunity to see the first alfalfa seeded in the section, as they inspect George Smathers' property in Center Pigeon. There they will also see examples of strip cropping and planting of ladino clover. Other places to be visited are the County Home farm, Long's Methodist Church, the new Spring Hill Baptist Church, and the homes or farms of Charlie Evans, J. H. Kinsland, Jesse T. Smathers, Ray Haynes, G. M. Harkins, Haynes Henson and Grover Abel. The group will assemble at the Bethel School and will return there for dinner and recreation.

Upper Crabtree Slates Meeting Next Wednesday

PEGGY BRADSHAW Mountaineer Reporter
The Upper Crabtree Community regular meeting will be held at the Mt. Zion Methodist Church Wednesday, August 29, at 8 p. m. Everyone is urged to attend.

Upper Crabtree wishes to welcome new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rogers and children. Former residents of Pigeon, they have moved to the John Rogers place.

Mr. and Mrs. Linton McCracken and family of Atlanta, Ga., have been guests of Mr. McCracken's family here. Other visitors are Mr. McCracken's brother from Oak City and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McCracken.

A total of 103 persons attended the Hill reunion last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hill. All twelve of their children were there, and with their families, they totaled 103.

The Rev. Elmer P. Carter will hold services at the Rock Springs Baptist Church both morning and evening on the first and third Sundays.

Pvt. Billy Haywood (Woody) Best, who has been home on a furlough, left Thursday to return to his camp.

Homecoming and Decoration Day will be held at the Mt. Zion Methodist Church September 2. There will be guest speakers and special singing. All singers in the county and elsewhere are invited.

Homecoming used to be held at the church every year, but several years have gone by since one has been held. A large crowd and "a lot of old-timers" are expected to attend.

Basket lunches will be brought.

Mrs. Emmie Rogers Wade of Chapel Hill is the guest of Mrs. Janie Love Taliaferro for two weeks.

White Oak Plans Program For Francis Cove Field Day

MRS. GEORGE BORING Mountaineer Reporter

Sixty-nine White Oak people attended their community development meeting Saturday night at the Community House. Two guests were also welcomed by Chairman George Boring at the opening of the meeting. These guests were Mrs. Clarence Kelley, Arlington, Va., and Wilson Messer, who is on a 30-day leave from his naval station in California.

Many of the singers gathered around the piano and sang five or six old time hymns. Devotionals were then led by Rubye Williams Kelley.

Plans were completed for field day, August 28, with Francis Cove Community. We hope to have a good crowd of our own folks to help entertain our guests. Every family is asked to bring a well-filled picnic basket.

The "Playmates," Janie Davis and Frances Conard, then sang two selections.

The Family Night program was turned over to the Ledfords, and Mrs. Sam Ledford acted as mistress of ceremonies. A trio consisting of Virginia Ledford, Marcene Lowe, and Betty Sue Lowe opened the program.

A variety of games for all ages was enjoyed. There was a balloon race, a nose dive contest, a marble and knife race, a toss ring game, a mathematical game with matches, a cracker and whistle game, a scrambled word contest, and a shoe scramble. This last game provoked the most laughs, I believe. Six men were blindfolded and given a lady's shoe, and told to fit it on the woman that it belonged to. Only one man found the right person and matched the shoes. Prize winners were Mrs. Rowe Ledford, Teague Williams, Betty Sue Lowe, Carl Davis, Frances Conard, Wilson Messer, Gene Messer, George Boring, Sam Ledford, Mrs. Joe Davis and Mrs. France Teague.

At the close of the program, imagine our surprise when Mrs. Ledford presented a lyric soprano, Madam LaSamuelli DeLedfordia—(Sam Ledford). This was a very fitting ending to a well planned program, planned by the Ledfords, and two daughters, Mrs. Jack James

Presbyterian Women To Entertain Sunday For Summer Visitors

The women of the Waynesville Presbyterian Church will have a tea honoring the summer visitors on Sunday afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock in the downstairs assembly rooms of the church. Officials of the Church will form the receiving line for the summer visitors. Refreshments will be served and a social get-together enjoyed by the members of the church congregation and all visitors who have shipped with the Presbyterian congregation this season are invited to attend the tea. Friends of the congregation are likewise invited.

and Mrs. Charlie Derrick. The community meeting was then closed by singing our closing song, "God Be With You." Refreshments were served by the ladies.

The next regular meeting will be Saturday night, September 1, with Mr. and Mrs. France Teague, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Teague, and Floyd Teague in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ledford and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Sykes Ledford and family have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ledford. With them on this trip was Thomas Earl Gregory. They are all from Baciff, Texas.

Walter Lowe is still on the sick list and under a doctor's care.

Saturday was Homecoming and Decoration Day at the Liberty Baptist Church. A picnic lunch was served at noon, and the graves were decorated. Many relatives and friends attended.
