Beaverdam Man Reported Killed In Korean Action

MRS. GEORGE F. WORLEY
Mountaineer Reporter

The entire community of Beaverdam is saddened by the message from the Department of the Army confirming the death of Bobby Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Miller. He was reported missing some time ago. This week a message was received stating that he had been killed in action in Korea.
Bobby was loved by all who knew him, and the people of this community wish to express their deepest sympathy to the entire family.
He is survived by his parents, five sisters, Mrs. Bashford Robinson of the Thickety section, Mrs. James Worley of Beaverdam, Mrs. LeRoy Broom of South Carolina, Inez and Mary Jane of the home, one brother, Harley, of the home, and a number of nieces and nephews.
The Beaverdam Service Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, September 7, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William Driver. All members are urged to be present, as "secret pal" names will be drawn, and an important discussion will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and family are vacationing in Detroit, Michigan. While there they will visit Mrs. Harris's brother, Glen Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ivens and two small children from Oklahoma City have returned home after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitted. Mrs. Ivens was formerly Miss Martha Whitted, sister of Ray Whitted and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Whitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Reno from Alabama recently visited relatives in this community.

Miss Pansy Robinson has returned to her home in Washington state after spending several months with her grandmother, Mrs. Lelia Robinson.

Mrs. Ila Duckworth and son from South Carolina are visitin relatives this week. They are staying with Mrs. Duckworth's sister, Mrs. Northern Parham, and a brother, Gaston West.

LeRoy Worley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Worley, is suffering from a fractured collar bone and other injuries sustained in a bicycle accident.

The Rev. Coleman Brown, the new pastor of the Beaverdam Baptist Church, is now holding revival services on Jonathan Creek. His congregation at Beaverdam are attending by bus loads.
Mr. Brown will soon move into the parsonage near his church.

White, Arthur Cody, Billy Carter, Joe Cathey, Lenoir Hargrove and J. E. Deas.
Honorary pallbearers were members of the Old Timers Club.
Wells Funeral Home was in charge.

MRS. MAGGIE GARNER

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie McElroy Garner, 77, who died at her home on RFD 1, Waynesville, near Bethel, Saturday at 10:30 a.m., were conducted Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Bethel Methodist Church.
The Rev. Clyde Collins officiated.
Burial was in the church cemetery with Clifton S. Terrell, Jack G. McCracken, David Edwards, Marvin Garner, John C. Bean, Jr., and J. T. Russell as pallbearers.
Members of the Sonoma Chapter No. 254 of the Order of Eastern Star were flower bearers.
Mrs. Garner was a native of Haywood County, a daughter of the late D. B. and Margaret Battle McElroy. She spent her entire life in this section and taught in the Haywood County schools for many years.
A member of the Bethel Methodist Church, she took an active part in Sunday School work. Mrs. Garner was a widow of H. H. Garner.
Survivors include one son, Henry Garner of RFD 1, Waynesville; two sisters, Mrs. Augusta Edwards and Mrs. Alice Welch, both of RFD 1, Waynesville.
