

Animals Are Well Treated Despite Movie 'Realism'

WOOD—AP—Own a pet? You'll be glad to know that animals are humanely treated in movies, no matter how realistic the scrapes they American Humane Association to that. Its western Me. Morse, or one of his assistants, is on the set of every animal movie.

Animals are glad to cooperate because they, too, are nowadays; they can't help but like the camera.

Donald Portway, master of St. Catherine's college, Cambridge University, lecturing to the men, said the flax was used to make paper in which films were packed. The atom radiations resulted in an "X-ray" effect which completely clump of bushes. Only you don't see the animals there—just the bushes flopping about from unseen tugs by workmen. In separate shots, the dogs run out (with yelps on the sound track) and Rhubarb comes out, supposedly chasing them.

Some movie-makers formerly used wires to trip horses in western chases. Sometimes horses were jumped off cliffs into water. These practices were stopped in an agreement between producers and the Humane Association in 1939. Now there are about 18 horses trained to fall without harm on a cue from their riders, Mel says.

Seemingly sick horses are animals trained to lie still. "A couple of groans on the sound track," Mel says, "and the audience does the rest with its imagination. A shot of two dogs playing together can be made to look like a fight by putting snarling on the track."

These Desserts Take Time, But Certainly Are Worth It!

AND still they come—those nice requests for more dessert recipes. So what can we do but oblige with as good a batch as we can muster at the moment? Yes, indeed, yummy foods, no less, are today's feature, good-tasting and packed with all sorts of fine ingredients, but requiring time and effort to prepare.

Banana Pecan Butterscotch
Loaf is new and delicious, definitely not for calorie-counters, alas! Sift together 1 1/2 c. sifted cake flour, 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder and 1/4 tsp. salt. Beat 5 egg whites until foamy; add 1 1/2 c. sugar gradually, beating constantly until mixture is stiff and shiny. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored; fold into egg whites. Add 2 tsp. cold water, tsp. grated lemon rind and 1/2 tsp. lemon juice; mix lightly. Fold in flour mixture. Fold in 1/2 c. melted butter, cooled until slightly thickened.

Orange Mousse
Light and lovely is a well-prepared Orange Mousse. Dissolve 1/2 c. sugar in 1 1/2 c. orange juice. Soften 1 1/2 tsp. gelatin in 2 tsp. water and dissolve over hot water. Mix well with the orange juice. Whip one c. heavy cream to custard-like consistency and fold in 4 tsp. powdered sugar. Fold into orange juice. Freeze in refrigerator at lowest temperature, stirring occasionally.

Mock Orange Alaska next—light, delectable. Halve 3 large oranges, removing most of the pulp. Cut the top of the shell in sawtooth fashion. Make a meringue from one egg white, beating it until it is almost stiff, adding 1/2 c. sugar gradually, beating until white holds its shape. Just before serving, fill the orange cup with tutti frutti ice cream, top with a thin layer of the meringue, and place in very hot oven (450 F.) until brown, taking care not to leave too long in oven. Should be served immediately. Takes one pint ice cream in all.

Cake Pan
Melt 3 tsp. butter in a cake pan (9 x 9 x 2 inches); add 1/2 c. firmly packed brown sugar; stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Peel 3 firm, ripe bananas, and cut in lengthwise halves. Arrange cut side down in syrup in pan and sprinkle 1/2 c. pecans crawl out of bed in the morning. It is easy to pick up, make the bed and dust while you are still almost asleep.

6. Did you develop a bias attitude toward life, because you became acquainted with a cynical clique? Actually you should stick to your own guns when it comes to making decisions which affect your manners or morals. If you've been accustomed to going to church, don't let others persuade you not to go. Young people are likely to think that part of being grown up is avoiding pre-school good habits whether it is church or sending birthday cards. 7. Did you indulge in gossip more often than good wholesome chat-chat? People get hurt by gossip, especially within the confines of a campus. If you've made a habit of carrying every story you hear, and perhaps embellishing it, make a resolution to imagine yourself in the spot of the person you are maligning, and perhaps you will change your tune.

Dear Judy,

A new school year offers a wonderful opportunity to wipe the slate clean. All the little bad habits we formed during last school year showed perhaps that we're just weak Annies under the skin.

The best way to strengthen character is by self-denial, hard work and taking a cheerful attitude toward chores. Think about the easy groove you slipped into last year, and then make a firm resolution to be a tougher character this year.

For instance: 1. Did you find that you couldn't resist a date, even if it was for the night before your big examination? And, that you'd rather take the risk of falling than losing the man of the moment?

If that was your weakness, make a firm resolution that school comes first. After all, there always is another man around the corner, but you can't always retrace your steps if you've lost the opportunity to get a good education.

2. Did you get in the habit of letting laundry pile up? Instead of doing your underwear and stockings every night did you let your wash accumulate until you had nothing clean to wear?

It is much easier to wash a few things every night, even if you must keep your eyes open with toothpicks. Once wash accumulates, it might be a long unpleasant chore to do the laundry.

3. Did you keep the family in debt trying to keep up with the Jones girls? Every time Mary or Sally Jones got a new dress or unique accessory, did you write home to complain to Mom that you were being cheated.

Clothes do not make the girl. Even if you show up in a flour sack, you will be popular providing you are a nice person, anyway. It is pretty silly to worry Mom and Pop who have plenty of other bills.

4. Did you get your own dates or did you wait until another girl showed up with a boy, and then try to take him away?

Some girls never can manage to get dates for themselves, and even if a good natured girl rounds up a blind date for one of these dateless Susies, she is not satisfied. Usually, she likes the other girl's boyfriend better than the one she is dating.

If you get a reputation for that sort of piracy, you'll have trouble getting dates at all. Remember that most school girls depend on brothers of class mates for dates, and if you get a reputation for being a date thief, you'll be a pretty lonely lassie.

5. Did you depend on your roommates to do your chores? Sometimes the other tenants will do your share, just because they can't bear untidiness. Don't think they do your job because they like you, especially.

Make a habit of doing your little room chores as soon as you green, glass-like substance. Souvenir necklaces were made from this substance. He said the wearers became unaccountably ill and the trouble was finally traced to radioactivity in the "glass". Portway asserted he thought that Soviet Russia lagged well behind the Allied powers in her atomic research and development.
