ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Luke 9:49-50; Acts 11:23-30; 15:1-35; I Corinthians 1:10-13; II Corinthians 9:1-5; Philippians 1:15-18.

Some prophets came to Antioch from Jerusalem, and one, Agabus, prophesied that there would be a great famine through all the world, so the brethren at Antioch sent relief to the brethren at Jerusalem by Paul and Barnabas.

Certain men came to Antioch saying that Gentiles must be circumcised, after the manner of Moses, or they could not be saved. Paul and Barnabas disagreed, and were sent to Jerusalem to discuss the matter with the elders.

In Jerusalem, Paul and Barnabas told the elders what miracles God had wrought among the Gentiles, and it was decided that they could be saved without following the Jewish custom.
MEMORY VERSE—Luke 9:50.
