

Beaverdam CDP Meeting Picks Pilot Farms; Adopts 'Nickels For Know How'

MRS. GEORGE F. WORLEY
Mountaineer Reporter

The Beaverdam Community Development meeting Tuesday night selected the community's pilot farms and discussed other matters of agricultural interest. C. V. Sorrels, Robert Harris and Walter Brown were chosen to carry out the pilot farming demonstration.

Grover Dobbins, assistant county agent and leader of the 4-H Club boys, was guest speaker.

Also explained at the meeting was the "Nickels for Know How" program for agricultural research.

Chairman Jack Chapman reminded residents of the tour and field day activities at Ratcliffe Cove on Saturday morning, and asked as many persons as possible to meet at the Beaverdam school at 8:45 a. m. to go to Ratcliffe Cove.

Stressing the long-range goal of accomplishing something worth while, the Service Club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Driver. A rummage sale will be held at the next meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. Helen Lowe; and a quilting party is planned for the near future.

ew "secret pal" names were drawn during the meeting, and refreshments were served by the hostess during the social chat.

Mrs. Crawford Rice gave the devotional.

Work on the Beaverdam Methodist Church will be started again in an effort to have the building ready for services before cold weather sets in, according to a decision of the building committee Monday night. Any donations to the building fund will be greatly appreciated.

The W. S. C. S. of Beaverdam Church will meet Friday night at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Linder.

Members wish to thank the W. S. C. S. women of the Plains Methodist Church of Hominy for their invitation to join with them in the study course held at their church on Monday of last week. The Beaverdam women regret that the invitation did not reach all their membership in time for them to attend the course.

The Rev. Coleman Brown and his family have moved into the parsonage of the Beaverdam Baptist Church. The people of the community wish to extend a hearty

City Hunts Child

SUPPLEMENTING police engaged in a search for Beverly Potts, 10, missing for several days, 800 city employees have been asked by Cleveland's Mayor Thomas A. Burke to join in the hunt. The girl was last seen talking with two men in a 1937 model black car with a "noisy muffler." (International Soundphoto) welcome.

The Rev. Mr. Wise, pastor of Long's Branch Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Coleman Brown, is going into the second week of a revival at Long's Branch. A large attendance with good interest is reported each night.

Two patients are improving at their homes after hospital surgery. Mrs. Mark Scott is at home after an operation at Victoria Hospital, Asheville; and Mrs. Helena Henline is convalescing after surgery at an Asheville hospital.

Perry Harbin, father of Mrs. Frank Robinson, is ill at his home in Canton.
