TRUMAN WARNS U. S. NOT TO RELAX

David Noland of Ratcliffe Cove, came home with the title of grand champion Ayrshire for his junior-calf entry in the seventh annual Western North Carolina Junior Dairy Show Tuesday at the Hominy Horse and Hound pavilion. Five other Haywood entrants captured blue ribbons, and thirteen, including David's second entry, were awarded red ribbons. They were competing against some one hundred fifty cows, heifers and calves from the entire western part of the state. Johnny Mack Ferguson garnered three prizes. His Guernsey four-year-old took a blue ribbon; he placed third in the Guernsey fitting contest, and fourth in showmanship. In the Haywood county contest Monday, he won honors in both showing and fitting. The county runner-up in showmanship, Harley Caldwell, placed third in showmanship at the district meet. His entry also received a red ribbon. Carl Green, Jr., heard his Jersey junior calf pronounced best-of-breed. Blue ribbon winners besides Noland, Ferguson and Green were Ernestine Osborne, showing in the senior yearling class; and Nickie Williamson and Loy Lee Williamson, in the senior calf division. Awarded red ribbons were Harley Caldwell, James Williamson, Joe Caldwell, Maxine Sims, for both senior yearling and senior calf entries; Patsy Sims for the same two classifications, Lou Ann Osborne, Charles Mainous, two ribbons for junior yearlings, Palmer Caldwell, Jack Chason, and David Noland.

POINTED REFERENCE TO RED 'UNITY'

A HUGE POSTER erected at a U. S. and Soviet sector point in Berlin is examined by a group of citizens standing in U. S. area. The poster shows a worker holding a sign which reads "is that unity?" while pointing at Soviet-made barricades. The posters were erected by the District Mayor of Kreuzberg to serve as counter-propaganda for Communist youths attending the festival in the Russian zone. (International)

Ratcliffe Cove, Iron Duff To Be Hosts At Final Community Field Days

A variety of community and home improvements will be on the routes of the last two Community field days Saturday. Ratcliffe Cove will be hosts to Beavertown; and Allens Creek will visit Iron Duff. Ratcliffe Cove residents will meet their guests at the Cove Community House at 9:30 a.m. After a visit to the Methodist Church the group is expected to see the dairy, chicken house and 4-H calves of Frank Leopold, the flow-

Turkish Lead The current increase in Turkish lead output is expected to go into modern home industry, thus avoiding the necessity of importing high-cost lead, and saving foreign exchange for other purposes. Nystagmus Nystagmus is the name of a rare eye trouble, which consists of an involuntary swinging of the eyes from side to side, up and down, or in rotary fashion. It is sometimes caused by psychic disturbances. Foot Plant Growth Poor plant growth is commonly due to the microscopic nematodes which attack the roots. Frederick Marsh has returned to his home in Washington, D. C. after a visit to his aunt, Miss Lois Harrold.
