Ruth Jeanne Mehaffey Is Bride Of Cpl. James H. Green

Miss Ruth Jeanne Mehaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alney Mehaffey of Waynesville, Route 2, became the bride of Corporal James Harold Green of Fines Creek, Friday evening, September 7, at 7 o'clock. Cpl. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Green of Fines Creek.

The ceremony was performed in the Peach Tree Church at Maggie with the Rev. Charles O. Mehaffey, uncle of the bride and pastor of the Mayfair Methodist Church at Kingsport, Tenn., officiating.

The vows were spoken before an arch covered with clematis and the chancel was decorated with white gladioli, fern, and eight-branched candelabra.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Geminn, organist and Jimmy Keen of Kingsport, Tenn., vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Eugene Mehaffey, of Kingsport, wore a gown of white marquisette fashioned with rose-point lace yoke. Her fingertip veil of nylon illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book covered with white orchids and tuberoses, and showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Helen Mehaffey was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua marquisette designed with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her matching headress was trimmed with white forget-me-nots.

Mary Sue Mehaffey of Maggie, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Lee Finger of Route 2, Waynesville served as best man and ushers were cousins of the bride.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mrs. John C. Finger, aunt of the bride. Assisting were Miss Frances Finger, Mrs. Paul Young,

Regular Meeting Is Held By Crabtree Club

The September meeting of the Upper Crabtree Home Demonstration Club was held Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Rex Messer with Mrs. Messer, vice-president, presiding.

Mrs. C. M. Rogers gave the devotional and Miss Mary Cornwell gave the demonstration.

Leaders reports were given on Food Conservation by Mrs. C. M. Rogers, and Home Beautification by Mrs. R. F. Rogers and Mrs. Ray Best.

Mrs. Robert Frammell and Mrs. Hugh Rogers were welcomed as new members.

and Mrs. Ralph Sease of Waynesville.

The bride's table was covered with a white hand-crocheted cloth and held a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a bride and groom and flanked with white candles.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride wore a suit of dark red gabardine with black accessories and the white orchid detached from her prayer book.

Upon their return the bride will reside in Hazelwood and Cpl. Green will go to Mather Air Field, Sacramento, Calif., where he is stationed.

Mrs. Green is a graduate of the Waynesville High School and Blanton's Business College, Asheville. She holds a position at Dayton Rubber Company.

Cpl. Green was graduated from Fines Creek High School before entering the service.

Corporal And Mrs. Green

Cpl. and Mrs. James Harold Green were married Friday evening in the Peach Tree Church at Maggie. Mrs. Green is the former Miss Ruth Jeanne Mehaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alney Mehaffey of Route 2, Waynesville.

Mrs. Elsie Pelling arrived last week by plane from St. Petersburg, Florida for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Boring at their home on White Oak. This is Mrs. Pelling's first visit to Western North Carolina.
