Star Plans Trip To Charlotte To Sell Bonds

Wanda Hendrix, glamorous brown-haired motion picture star, will be the honorary queen of the Carolinas Carrousel in Charlotte on Thursday, November 15th. She will be a featured attraction of the gala parade.

Thomas L. Robinson, chairman of the Carrousel's Distinguished Guest Committee, has received word that Miss Hendrix has accepted the invitation to attend the big festival.

The star will be accompanied to Charlotte by Bill Hendrix of the Hollywood firm of King Kennedy & Associates. Mr. Hendrix also accompanied Coleen Gray, last year's Carrousel honorary queen.

Miss Hendrix, whose latest picture is "The Highwayman," is a native of Jacksonville, Florida. She has starred in many motion pictures and has appeared opposite some of the biggest box office names in the motion picture industry. Among her movies were "Prince of Foxes," with Tyrone Power, "Welcome Stranger," with Bing Crosby and "Tatlock's Millions" with John Lund.

Her visit here is being arranged in connection with the sale of U. S. Defense Bonds. Charlotte has been assigned a goal of a million dollars in bonds in the current campaign.

Assisting Mr. Robinson in obtaining Miss Hendrix was Mrs. Sue C. Oulahan of the U. S. Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department.
