3 p. m. at the Hazelwood town hall to distribute candy to children. Later in the afternoon he'll visit the county court house to hand out some more sweets.

Saturday our guest will ride in the tobacco show parade at 10:30 a. m., and Saturday afternoon will make a special appearance at the Merchant's Trade Jubilee program at the high school stadium.

In case you don't know who we mean by "he", you can call him St. Nick or Kris Kringle. But he's best known simply as Santa Claus.

'We Don't Brag About Our Schools'

Jonathan Woody told the Waynesville Kiwanis Club that "Our schools are a disgrace," in an address Tuesday night at the regular dinner meeting of the group. After his speech the Kiwanians went on record as supporting the school expansion program. (A Mountaineer Photo.)

industrial wages are higher than in any county in the state, but we don't discuss the fact that 25 children would burn up before they could get out of the building if Central Elementary school caught fire.

"We brag about having more concrete silos than any county in the state," he continued, "but we never think to say anything about Mt. Sterling not having a toilet."

A number of other examples were given, after which the Club voted to endorse the program. A meeting of directors and committee chairmen followed the dinner meeting, and plans were announced for a Charter Night meeting on Dec. 11th.

traveling exhibit. Its operator, a South Carolinian, said that he would close his display and return home. His unit is owned by the American Exhibits Co. of New York.

The exhibit was charged with violating a copyright law by displaying a copyright law by displaying the V.F.W. emblem illegally.

Mr. Cogburn praised The Mountaineer for its part in halting the operation of the trailer, and explained that he had heard nothing of its coming until his talk with the reporter.

At a recent V.F.W. regional meeting in Chattanooga, officers were warned to be on the lookout for mobile exhibits which carried the emblem of the organization, and claimed to have its backing.

Announcement has been made that the Canton Chamber of Commerce and license bureau will be closed on Monday, Nov. 19th, and again on Thursday, November 22th.

SEE HOW VICKS VAPORUB IN STEAM OPENS COLD-STUFFED BREATHING PASSAGES

Every breath of medicated steam brings DEEP-ACTION RELIEF from coughs, stuffiness of colds.

No matter how choked-up or miserable a cold makes you feel, here's a home-proved treatment that relieves the worst stuffiness and makes breathing easier fast... two spoonfuls of Vicks VapoRub in vaporizer or bowl of boiling water as directed in package. It's easy! You just breathe in the steam! Every breath carries VapoRub's soothing medications deep into troubled throat and large bronchial tubes. In no time at all, this wonderful treatment medicates and soothes dry, irritated membranes; relieves stuffiness and helps restore normal breathing.

For that choked-up feeling... for coughing spasms or upper bronchial congestion... there's nothing like using Vicks VapoRub in steam.

And always rub it on for continued relief. To insure continued action, rub VapoRub on throat, chest and back. It keeps right on working for hours... brings relief even while you sleep. It's the best-known home remedy you can use when any cold strikes child or grown-up, one and only VICKS VAPORUB.

Festival Speaker

Wayne Freeman, editor of the Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont, will be one of the principal speakers during the two-day Tobacco and Home Demonstration Exhibition this week-end.
