Moses' Charge to the People

HE WARNED THEM THAT DISOBEDIENCE TO JEHOVAH MEANT DISASTER.

Scripture—Deuteronomy 29—34.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IN THIS world, where moral values seem for the time to have lapsed, and dishonesty, disloyalty, assaults and murder fill the pages of our newspapers, we need to turn to the pages of our Old Testament, and read how these same sins brought disaster to the Israelites.

Moses called all Israel to listen to his reading of the covenants of the Lord which he had written down in the Lord's own words. He reviewed their history from the escape from Egypt to that time.

Forty years they had wandered in the wilderness, and Jehovah was with them all the way. When they were tempted and yielded, He had forgiven them. His trumpet had sounded to start them on their daily journey; His cloud had been over them by day and His light shone for them by night. That was their security in all their weary wanderings and camping in tents.

Moses, now in his extreme old age and facing death, warned his people that as long as they were true to Jehovah and obeyed Him, prosperity and happiness would be theirs; but if they disobeyed Him and were faithless, worshipping false gods, disaster surely would befall them. They would be cursed.

MEMORY VERSE

"The eternal God is thy dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms."—Deuteronomy 33:27.

They had, with Jehovah's help, overcome Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan. There would be more battles to fight, and Moses himself must have wondered if Israel would prove true to her trust or would backslide to the worship of false gods and idols, as she had in the past.

His voice must have been full of passionate pleading as he read: "Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do... That He may establish thee today for a people unto Himself, and that He may be unto thee a God, as He hath said unto thee, and as He hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

Moses' heart must have almost failed him when he thought of the past history of this people during these 40 years. How would it be when he was gone and they felt that God was not so close to them?

After the reading, Moses told his people that he was an old man, 120 that day, and he was unable to "go out and come in; also the Lord hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan."

"The Lord thy God, He will go over before thee and He will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them; and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the Lord hath said."

To Joshua, who was to take his place, who was a venerable and courageous leader addressed the words, "Be strong and of a good courage; fear not, nor be afraid."

of them; for the Lord thy God, He it is that doth go with thee; He will not fail thee, nor forsake thee."

And before all the people Moses repeated his cheering message to the new leader.

Moses wrote down the law, and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, "which have the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Israel."

Again Moses called all the people together, and this time it was to hear a beautiful song of praise to Jehovah. Do you remember the song the Israelites sang when they had crossed the Red sea safely and their enemies were lost in its depths? This song of Moses is considered perhaps the most beautiful poetry in the world. God had told Moses to go up into the mount and He would show him the land that was to be the home of his people, and then he would die. First, however, Moses blessed the children of Israel, and then he "went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of which the Lord showed him all the land of Gilead unto the Dan, and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea."

"And the Lord said unto him: This is the land which I swear unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed; I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither."

So Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord, although "his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated."

And the Lord "buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor; but no man knoweth his sepulchre unto this day."

"And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended."

"And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face."

Grandmother Knows

Grandmother knows so many things! She can sew and knit and crochet and make lots of pretty things that people prize because they are hand-made. And you simply can't beat her as a good cook and housekeeper.

Yes, honey, Grandmother does know. She knows about all these practical things—and much more. She knows the deeper lessons of life. She knows that right is right and wrong is wrong—and that right is always best.

The girl who is blest with a good mother and a good grandmother, and is smart enough to learn from them, can practically chart her own happiness and build a life that is a blessing to mankind and the world.

Grandmother knows that spiritual things are far more important than material things. She knows that God rules in the kingdom of men, that the Church is His messenger, and that faith is man's hope of salvation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
