Declaration of Independence?

The men who wrote the first one struggled to put new ideas into simple words. Humbly, they tried to set down clearly certain rights of man that could be called God-given, and hard-to-say things of a spiritual nature truth, equality, freedom.

And the words came alive, and the ideas shone clear. The idea that each man is more important than his government; his independence more precious than his security; his spiritual strength more lasting than his armies.

Upon these ideas, a nation grew great.

There are always people who fear such ideas - even today, even in America. These people feel that man cannot be trusted with his destiny. They are working to make government the master - instead of the servant - of the people.

Their distrust of the individual has spread frighteningly in the past

It can be stopped by ideas - the same ideas spelled out in the Declara-

It's time for all of us, privately and in public, to declare once again our independence-to speak up for freedom, and against anything that

The trend toward more and more government controls is a threat to every business, every family, every individual. That's why we bring you this message.
