Mrs. Hargrove Is Hostess For Cecil Club

The Cecil Home Demonstration Club held their regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hargrove. Mrs. J. E. Burnette presided.

The meeting was opened with a devotional by Mrs. Jim Metcalf, after which leaders reports were given as follows: foods and nutrition by Mrs. J. E. Burnette, home gardens by Mrs. James Reeves, frozen foods by Mrs. Alonzo Warren, and arts and crafts by Mrs. Ken Browning. Mrs. Edgar Burnette led the discussion on home safety and gave several suggestions on removing hazards from her home.

The demonstration on "Make It Yourself" was presented by the home agent.

Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Parkman will have as their guests for the Fourth the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parkman, and their children of Saluda.

Lost Memory Girl To Wed

Carolyn Bigham, 20, who lost her memory through illness almost two years ago, sits in her home at Charlotte, as she writes to her fiancé, Gwyn Daniel, 22, of Ardmore, Oklahoma. Daniel saw Carolyn's picture in a national magazine, wrote her encouragement which led to a mail romance. They plan to wed in August. After losing her memory, Carolyn went back through school, first grade through high school, in less than two years. (AP Photo)

West Canton Home Club Plans Plate Workshop

The West Canton Home Demonstration Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Corzine with Mrs. Marshall Cooper, vice president, presiding. The meeting was opened with group singing and a devotional given by Mrs. James Hyde.

Leaders reports were given as follows: foods and nutrition by Mrs. M. G. Cooper, food preservation by Mrs. W. S. McElrath, home beautification by Mrs. Paul Gibson, arts and crafts by Mrs. Hugh Earley and Mrs. W. S. McElrath, and health by Mrs. A. B. Watts.

The demonstration, "Make It Yourself," was given by Miss Mary Cornwell. Plans were made for a workshop on Wood-Plates with the choice plate to be used for the Fair and Home Week exhibit.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her niece Miss Geneva Corzine.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Dale Stentz of Concord, former residents of Waynesville, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Massie for the weekend.

Miss Watkins Is Honored At Bridge Party

Mrs. Roy Francis and her daughter, Miss Nancy Francis, were hostesses of a dessert bridge and canasta party this afternoon, honoring Miss Vivian Watkins, bride-elect.

Mixed summer flowers were used in decorating to carry out a red and white color motif.

Following the games prizes were awarded to the holders of high scores and the honor guest was presented a gift of silver.

The hostesses were assisted by Miss Shirley Mae Connatser, Miss Sally Stovall, and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

Those playing were Miss Watkins and her mother, Mrs. Dan Watkins, Miss Elizabeth Watkins, Miss Joan Morris, Miss Kathleen Calhoun, Miss Bette Hannah, Mrs. H. C. Turner, Miss Lane Prevost, Miss Mary Osborne, Miss Elaine Francis, and Misses Lee and Jane Phillips of Durham.

Play Director

Miss Ruth Ann Johnson, professional dramatic coach, recently arrived in Waynesville to assist the Kiwanis Club in presenting the outstanding comedy "Crazy Daze" in the Waynesville High School auditorium July 10 and 11. Miss Johnson is presently casting for the play and making plans for the first rehearsal.

Junaluska Club Has Meeting

Mrs. Carl Medford was hostess for a meeting of the Junaluska Home Demonstration Club Friday afternoon.

During the business session with Mrs. Medford presiding, plans were made for a workshop on Swedish darning to be held this month.

The demonstration on "Make It Yourself," was given by Miss Mary Cornwell and leaders reports were given as follows: home gardens, Mrs. Clark Messer and Miss Elizabeth Glosser; home beautification, Mrs. Will Medford; arts and crafts, Mrs. John McClure and Mrs. O. C. James.

Mrs. Carroll Morrow and Mrs. Ted Walker were welcomed as new members.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bennett of Durham announce the birth of a daughter, Claudia Ellen on June 14. Mrs. Bennett is the former Miss Thelma Fisher of Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Defravio and three grandchildren, Sherry, Joe and Barry Defravio, of Charlotte are here for a visit to Mrs. Defravio's father, Asbury Howell and Mrs. Howell.

Colorful Flattery

RETURNING to its important and rightful place in the wardrobe is the one-piece dress of fine fabric, designed for wear from luncheon on. Here's a prime example of this type of frock fashioned of pure silk antique shantung in a soft violet-gray with a navy midriff sash through which two clusters of Parma violets are thrust. The entire skirt is knife-pleated, as is the surplice bodice. The sleeves are gently full to just below the elbow.

Miss McElroy Is Bride Of Massie Osborne

Miss Joan McElroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. McElroy of Waynesville, was married to Massie Osborne, son of Mrs. Henry B. Osborne and the late Dr. Osborne of Clyde, in a ceremony Tuesday, June 22, at 4 p.m. in the home of the bride.

The Rev. Jarvis Underwood, uncle of the bride and pastor of the Antioch Baptist Church, officiated.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar in front of the living room fireplace. Floor baskets of white gladioli and fern flanked the altar.

The couple entered together. The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon net over taffeta with tight fitting taffeta bodice, fashioned with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. She wore a finger-tip length veil of illusion edged with French lace and attached to a tiara of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with white roses.

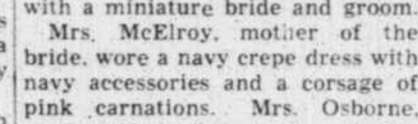

Little Miss Pola Harrell, niece of the bride, was ring bearer and the only attendant. She wore a dress of pink dotted swiss with a coronet of pink carnations.

After the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and held a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. McElroy, mother of the bride, wore a navy crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Osborne, mother of the bridegroom, wore a flowered print with a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip and are now at home in Clyde. For traveling the bride wore navy lace with white accessories and the corsage from her prayer book.
