...cis, declaring himself in sympathy with the project if the money could be found, said, "We will go down in history as the spendingest Board that has ever been in Haywood County. You have asked us to earmark $2,000,000 for schools, about three quarters of a million for a hospital, only last month to start on an agricultural and home arts building—where do you want us to stop? We will give serious thought to this recommendation and see if there is any way to take care of it."

those with whom he had talked were in favor of the center as a sound business investment, as a sign of progress of the county, as a means of increasing the scope and efficiency of the county health department, and as a method of increasing the county health level as a whole.

center was discussed briefly. Mr. Howell stated that recommendations included at least an acre, accessible to water and sewage lines. Commissioner Jarvil Allison commented that well over an acre was available on the hospital grounds. The possibility of a location behind the Court House was mentioned, as the one-acre requirement includes parking space, and a parking area is already available responsibility of the county health department," she said, "and at this time it has neither the staff nor the facilities to handle it. If we had such an epidemic, the department would be forced to 'farm out' a good part of its job to our local physicians."

AT STRAND WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—John Payne and Jan Sterling are teamed together for the first time in Paramount's brand new Technicolor adventure drama, "The Vanquished". Set against the background of the old South during its most violent era, the excitement-loaded film co-stars Coleen Gray and Lyle Bettger and features Willard Parker.

Payne Hits Heroic High In Film 'The Vanquished'

A lusty tale of adventure taken from the pages of the South's most violent era is "The Vanquished," Paramount's brand-new Technicolor film drama at the Strand Theatre. Starring John Payne, Jan Sterling, Coleen Gray and Lyle Bettger with Willard Parker, the film is jam-packed with blazing action that doesn't let up from start to finish.

Set against the colorful background of a Southern town during the bloody Reconstruction days following the Civil War, "The Vanquished" tells the tumultuous tale of a returned Confederate Major whose fight for justice makes him a hunted outlaw. This heroic figure, as portrayed by John Payne, seeing how his town is being ruined by corrupt carpetbaggers, throws in with the contemptible parasites in order to gain evidence which will ultimately destroy them.

His struggle to free the town of tyranny makes for some of the most dynamic film fare to come our way in many a day. The issue of good versus evil flares throughout the rousing proceedings and is finally settled only after a goody share of blistering action has taken place.
