By MRS. KYLE LINDSEY
Community Reporter

The Community Development Program will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Grace Jones and Iva Ann Deaver will have charge of the devotions.

Members of the Sunday School of Louisa Chapel voted last Sunday to have a Homecoming the third Sunday in August. The children and young people will have a program at the morning service and a picnic dinner will be held on the church grounds.

Roger and Verba Kay Norris, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, were christened by Dr. C. N. Clark at the morning service last Sunday at Louisa Chapel.

Mrs. Mollie Shook and Troy Jenkins are on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jackson, Carleen Rhinehart, and Mrs. H. C. Shook are making the out-of-state Farm Tour.

Davis Rogers of Ohio is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Haynes and children are spending a vacation fishing at Hayesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McNemar of Culpeper, Va., were recent guests of Mrs. Henry Osborne.

Keep your kitchen cool and panbroil chops. Use a heavy slightly greased skillet and heat it; add the chops and brown, turning often. Pour off the fat as it melts and collects.

TWO ACES FOR 1953—Here's Miss Barbara Ann Crockett of Winston-Salem, who last week was named as Miss North Carolina of 1953 to represent the state in the national beauty contest at Atlantic City, shown presenting a trophy to Curtis Turner of Roanoke, Va., voted as the most popular driver of the season at Bowman Gray stadium in Winston-Salem, where Turner will be seeking his third win of the season in the sportsmen's races Saturday night.

Fried eggplant makes a delicious luncheon dish. Don't peel the eggplant; just slice it, dip in seasoned flour and brown in a little butter or margarine. Accompany the eggplant with scalloped tomatoes and a green vegetable for a good-tasting main course.

SO THIS IS NEW YORK

BY NORTH CALLAHAN

Gene Autry was in town and he had a moonlight look in his eye when he saw the old Ziegfeld Theater again. For it was here that Will Rogers became famous, and Gene owes a lot to Will. You see, once when Gene Autry was a telegraph operator on a railroad at Chelsea, Oklahoma, Will Rogers stopped by one day to send a telegram and heard Gene singing. Will told him he was good. Encouraged by this, Gene grabbed his railroad pass and came to New York. Mogulls of Tin Pan Alley told him to go home and get experience. He did and worked free on small Oklahoma radio stations where his popularity won him a spot on the National Barn Dance in Chicago. In 1928, Gene wrote "That Silver Haired Daddy of Mine," recorded it and it has since sold two million copies. In 1938, Autry became Hollywood's first singing cowboy. His film success brought him his own radio show, and in 1949 he became the first top Hollywood name to go into television on a regular schedule. Now he's as regular to most kids as their Sunday School.

Had lunch in the private dining room of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company with Tom Phelps and Dan McCarthy, officials, and was impressed by the unique type of menus used. There is no danger of over-eating if one follows faithfully the purpose of this bill of fare. Before each item is printed the number of calories it contains. The idea sprang, I was told, from the medical department of the company, which became solicitous about the waist lines of some executives. Each day, the menu is sent by Steward R. V. Ewers to the medical department for approval, or change, before it is finally decided upon. The calorie content is the determining factor, the aim also being a balanced meal. So I chose a 70 calorie soup, and a 210 corned beef and cabbage. This was, calorically speaking, a light lunch, so far. Tom kindly informed me over his chicken sandwich. So I succumbed to a 250 coconaut jelly layer cake dessert.

Residents of the suburb of Pelham are afraid the answer to the question of whether our mail service has improved is not yet in the affirmative. A letter mailed in Pelham at 10:25 a.m. was addressed to the Pelham Sun, a newspaper which is 100 feet away from the box where the letter was mailed. The letter was picked up, carried by a huge truck to the post office which is several blocks way, and delivered 23 hours later to the paper. Content of the letter? A complaint about the mail service.

Gotham Gatherings: When young Chips Corley of Chattanooga first came to New York he looked at the tall buildings and said, "Gee, I thought they'd be so high you couldn't see their tops" . . . Carl Byoir, local public relations exec., wears a handkerchief in his top coat pocket with his name embroidered on it . . . a not from Pugh Moore of the Associated Press, sets some kind of mark for brevity, being signed "P.M., AP, 7-10-53" . . . the first Protestant chapel in a Federal prison was recently dedicated at Milan, Mich. No wonder there is a lack of religious influence in our prisons, if this is an indication . . . the Hotel Roosevelt has individual bread toasters at every breakfast table for its guests . . . after trying two other kinds of trees, Rockefeller Center officials have found that only honey locusts seem to survive in that region of concrete and steel . . . at Fraunces Tavern, Gen. George Washington said fairwell to his troops. Across the street at 39 Whitehall, Gen. Hershey says hello to his.

Never omit cream of tartar or corn syrup from a boiled frosting when it's called for in the recipe. Cream of tartar and corn syrup cooked with the frosting syrup help in the formation of small crystals as well as in preventing crystal growth on standing.
