

Annual Clyde Flower Show Is Planned For August 14

The annual Clyde Flower Show will be staged Friday, August 14, in the Clyde School Gymnasium.

The show, sponsored jointly by the Clyde Woman's Club and the Future Homemakers of America, will be open to the public from 4 until 10 p.m.

Entries may be made Friday morning from 8 until 12 o'clock and judging will begin at 1:30 p.m.

According to the rules as announced by the flower show committee, all entries in the Horticulture Division must have been grown by the exhibitor. Naming the specimens will increase the value of the exhibits. Containers will be furnished.

A tri-color award, for excellence above the blue ribbon, will be made in both the Horticulture and Arrangement Divisions and a sweepstakes trophy will be awarded to the person having the greatest number of points.

Mrs. Robert Williams, president of the Woman's Club, and Miss Judy Pressley, president of the Homemakers Club, are being assisted by the following committees in planning the show:

John Payne and Donna Reed Star In Swashbuckling Technicolor Picture

"Raiders of the Seven Seas," a tale of legendary exploits of Barbarossa the Prince of Buccaneers in the 17th Century, ranging from the slave-coast of Morocco to the Spanish Main, will provide the main film fare at the Strand Theatre starting Wednesday through United Artists release. John Payne and Donna Reed share stellar honors with Gerald Mohr and Lon Chaney heading the supporting cast.

Directed in bright-hued color by Technicolor, this Edward Small production literally sweeps from hemisphere to hemisphere in its melodramatic recreation of the life of the fabulous pirate-king who escaped a Sultan's wrath because of his forays into the den harem.

By seizing a ship bearing convicts of Spain to the West Indies, Barbarossa in one sweep captures the main film fare at the Strand Theatre starting Wednesday through United Artists release. John Payne and Donna Reed share stellar honors with Gerald Mohr and Lon Chaney heading the supporting cast.

Sidney Salkow produced "Raiders of the Seven Seas" from a story and play written by Salkow in collaboration with John O'Dea.

Chamber of Commerce Meets Tuesday Night
The Directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Waynesville hold their regular monthly meeting at the Town Hall Tuesday, August 11, at 7:30 p.m. according to the agenda sent out by L. C. Marley, secretary.

Dr. Boyd Owen, president, asked that all members make special effort to attend this meeting.

editorial board of the North Carolina English Teacher, a publication of the Association.

DASHING AND DARING, the pirate Barbarossa played by John Payne captures the Countess Alida, Donna Reed, in this scene from "Raiders of the Seven Seas" at the Strand Theatre. United Artists release in color by Technicolor.
