Sunday School Lesson

Christ Above All
 PAUL WRITES OF THE PRE-EMINENCE OF THE LORD
 Scripture—Colossians 1:1—2:7.

LEWMAN CAMPBELL
 COLOSSAE was an important town in Greece, in the province of Asia. It was St. Paul whose mission was responsible for the conversion of many citizens and the founding of the church. Paul was also a prisoner, was anxious about the welfare of churches he had founded, according to his letters to congregations, feared that the church might be weaned away by evil men. Paul's epistles praising members for their good works, and his prayers on their behalf, and also warning them of the possibility of evils that might befall them if they were not obedient to the Colossians.

MEMORY VERSE
 "For in Him are all things created, in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through Him and unto Him."
 "And He is before all things, and by Him all things exist."
 "And He is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things He might have pre-eminence."
 What does the word "pre-eminence" mean? "Eminent above others; prominent; superior, especially in excellence," says the dictionary.
 How many pre-eminent people do you know? Not too many, and yet each one of us can think of some one—maybe several—whom we consider pre-eminent. They stand out from all those we have known even in quite a long lifetime. Children may know a few—parents, other relatives, teachers—some men and women in other walks of life.

However, Christ, who, as a man on earth, went about doing good; who told us to forgive our enemies and love those who were unkind to us; who, when suffering agony on the cross, still asked His Father to forgive His torturers. No one can possibly be pre-eminent over Him in all the world.

Though Paul was absent in the body from his churches, his spirit was with them always, he writes, and he warns them against men who might beguile them with "enticing words."

"As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him; rooted and built up in Him, and stabilized in the faith, as ye have been taught, according to the truth with thanksgiving."

Thus, putting Christ above all, we can strive, as Paul wrote to the Colossians, to follow Him.

A CHANGE IN VIEW

There's nothing like a new perspective to change your attitude toward life.

When Junior is bored, he simply stands on his head for a new slant at things. The floor flips to the ceiling, with tables and chairs hanging from it, and people walk upside-down. At least that's the way it looks to him.

It is a good idea to gain a different perspective—to step back and get a new slant on things around you. But you don't have to stand on your head to do it.

Instead identify yourself with a church. Take your family and go regularly to worship. You will find a new perspective. Genuine values will keep their importance; unimportant things will diminish.

Today's life will be happier; tomorrow's full of hope. Nothing is upside-down, but everything claims its rightful place when you view life with the faith of a Christian.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
