Strikes And Storms Add Excitement For European Travelers

Mrs. H. L. Baughman of Waynesville and Mrs. Edith Eller of Hendersonville have returned to their homes after a two months' tour of Europe which included many events not previously planned — especially on the return trip.

To begin the trip home from Paris, the tourists sat all day in their hotel with little hope of transportation from the strike bound city. Finally they were taken by bus, furnished by the Curard Steamship Line, to Le Harve and sailed on the "Caronia" August 9. But even on the boat, there was more excitement to come, for the ship was in the path of the hurricane which swept the coast of the United States last week. According to Mrs. Baughman the ship "sat it out," about five hours and docked in New York twelve hours late.

Mrs. Baughman and Mrs. Eller visited England, Ireland, Scotland, Belgium, Italy, Holland, and France during their tour.
