Delayed Payment

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — While Mrs. John Nagy worked in her yard, a stranger approached and said "I have come to pay for the chickens I stole." He handed her $3. It seems that 18 years earlier, when the Nagys lived on a farm, a boy had taken a few chickens.

Mrs. Nagy tried to return the $3 but the stranger refused. So she said she would "go to church and put every bit of it in the collection envelope."

tral Elementary school; Ray's Department Store, and the Bowling Alley.

The 14-year-old boy has not been in school this year, the records show.

Chief Noland said "we have the definite evidence, and identifications, and feel it is just a matter of time until we will have the boys in custody."

The police have been working constantly on the case since the series of robberies began.

Police Jobs Multiply

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Childhood ambitions to become a cop can now be realized by all able-bodied men in Kentucky.

The Kentucky State Police is organizing an auxiliary force. Volunteers will serve without pay. They will be concerned only with emergencies, such as an enemy attack on the United States. They would help state troopers control highway traffic and assist injured and homeless persons.

Training similar to that given regular police will be given to the volunteers.

Postman's Holiday

BURLINGTON, N. C. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pruitt really believe in covering ground when they take a vacation. During a recent three-week trip they traveled 10,000 miles in 27 states. Pruitt did all the driving. His occupation is a truck driver.

Expensive Blowout

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—It was a $12,000 blowout. It didn't cost Bradshaw $12,000; it cost Sandusky county.

The blowout was costly because it threw Bradshaw's car into the rail of a 50-foot bridge. The bridge collapsed.

Voyage To Come

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Dr. H. Snyder is in no hurry. He was back in 1941 that he was building a 36-foot yawl as a hobby. Some time around 1954 or 1955 he may get the vessel finished. He is now start thinking about a sailing trip.

Insult And Burglary

OMAHA (AP) — Burglars broke into a business establishment here added insult to injury by (1) using the firm's truck to away the loot, and (2) stealing the company's burglary insurance policy.
