Part Of County Working On United Fund Program; Invite Agencies To Join

The Admissions Committee of the United Funds, Canton-Bethel-Clyde, Inc., is definitely under way in obtaining applications from various organizations to join United Fund, according to Dr. Hugh Matthews, president. Organizations joining include agencies and groups existing in the area which are engaged in health, welfare, charitable, recreational, and character building activities and services, he explained. Upon being accepted as institutional members they will benefit by the annual fund raising activities of the United Fund.

United Fund invites any organization or agency in this area who falls within the categories in Dr. Matthews' statement to advise F. I. Newman or any of his committee members of their desire to participate. Thus their applications may be reviewed in the near future and processed without delay.

The application blank, available now, calls for information pertaining to the background, purposes and functions of the prospective institutional member and the names of two persons who shall be authorized to represent the organization. The organization agrees on the application that it knows the objects of United Fund, agrees to cooperate with it, accept the apportionment of funds allotted to it by the Board of Directors, and not to solicit funds independently unless it has the written consent of United Fund.

Committee members who will lend assistance in filing applications, besides Newman, include Fred Ferguson, Alton Phillips, J. R. Sechrest, Roy McKinnish, Hugh Terrell and Grover Haynes.

Having been notified by the Secretary of the State of North Carolina that the United Fund of Canton-Bethel-Clyde, Inc., had been granted its Charter of Incorporation, the incorporators met again Friday night, August 28. They con-

Southern Baptist Librarian To Hold Canton Meeting

Miss Florida Waite, secretary of church library promotion, Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, will be among the outstanding personalities who will be leading conferences at the Church Library Conference to be held at the First Baptist Church, Canton. Miss Waite will lead the conference for pastors, and the Church Library Committee. The Church Library Conference will be held September 11th, 2:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Canton.

Miss Jo Gwin, manager of the Baptist Book Store, Charlotte, will also lead a conference. Miss Gwin will lead the conference on book selection. The election of the Board of Directors which in turn confirmed the election of officers and moved to adopt the By-laws under which the organization will operate.

Dr. Hugh Matthews advised the Board of the selection of members of the Campaign Committee, whose job it will be to guide the fund raising activities of the United Fund. The General Chairman is Glenn Simmons of the Champion Motor Company. According to Dr. Matthews, Simmons has had previous experience in the United Fund Campaign in Asheville. Serving with him are Co-Chairman J. W. Winfrey of Clyde, Kin McNeil of Bethel and Loranzo Smathers of Canton.

The Campaign Committee is expected to call upon individuals and organizations for assistance until every person in the Canton-Bethel-Clyde area may be assured of being advised of the nature of United Fund and its advantages and be given an opportunity to become a contributing member.

Directors attending the Board meeting included Dr. Matthews, J. M. Barnes, Mrs. Noah Swafford, Paul Murray, Hugh Terrell, the Reverend C. J. Lime, Henry Seaman, Louis Gates, and Scott Harvey.

LAST OF DROWNED SOLDIERS RECOVERED—The body of a soldier lies covered on a stretcher after it was pulled from the lake in the background on the Ft. Bragg reservation. The victim was one of 20 trainees who lost their lives in a mishap while on routine training mission. Authorities said that the men were riding on two engine assault craft bolted together and were being returned to shore from a section of a pontoon bridge. (AP Wirephoto).

Top Finance Executives Of Methodist Church End Three-Day Session At Lake

Top executive officers of 23 Methodist boards and agencies yesterday elected D. Stewart Patterson of Washington, D. C. president of their Council of Secretaries.

The church officials are here to make their several financial reports to the Council of World Service and Finance which collectively serves as a kind of comptroller for the denomination.

Patterson, who is lay leader of the Baltimore Conference, is the executive secretary of the Methodist Commission on Chaplains.

Vice presidents chosen were Miss Henrietta Gibson of New York, treasurer of the Woman's Division, and Dr. John O. Gross of Nashville, Tenn., executive secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions. The Rev. Horace W. Williams of Nashville, executive secretary of the committee on Missionary Education, was continued as secretary of the Council of Secretaries. Whether clergymen should be put under social security was one of the subjects under consideration by the executives. No conclusions were reached, the matter being referred for further study. Pension officials of several denominations later this month will attempt to reach agreement on a legislative proposal on the subject, Dr. Charles Calkins of Chicago, Methodist pension board head, told the secretaries. George Huggins, a Philadelphia actuary and social security specialist, addressed the Council and answered questions.

A 72-minute color film on the life of John Wesley, Methodism's founder, will be ready for release about November 1, Dr. Harry C. Spencer of Nashville told the officials here. Filmed last spring in England, in some cases on the veritable locations, the film had the cooperation of J. Arthur Rank, British film magnate. Rank's introduction to the film business was through an initial interest as a Methodist layman in religious films. The Wesley film was produced at a cost of $154,000.

An office directly across from the United Nations in New York in the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace Center has been opened. World Service Council members were told, to aid the Methodist Board of World Peace. This board, located in Chicago, selection for the church library and will also give a book review. Miss Gwin is well qualified to lead the discussion on book selection for the church library. Few people know books and their importance as Miss Gwin knows them. She is truly an expert in the field.

The Church Library Conference will start at 2:30 p.m. and will close at 9:00 p.m. The program has been well planned and will be as practical as possible. The last item on the program for the evening will be the presentation of a playlet emphasizing the ministry of the church library. This playlet will be under the direction of the librarian of the First Baptist Church, Canton, Miss Cordelia Johnson. Young people of the First Baptist Church will participate in the playlet.

James Light Moved To Gatlinburg By Nat'l Park Service

Superintendent Edward A. Hummel has announced the change of headquarters of Assistant Chief Ranger James B. Light from Bryson City, to Gatlinburg, Tenn. Light has been with the National Park Service since March 16, 1932, with various assignments in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. He was previously with the Indian Service in Montana and Arizona. He has served as Assistant Chief Ranger since 1933 in which position he has been assigned to the North Carolina section of the park.

Light is a graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in forestry. He and Mrs. Light and their two daughters, Betty and Ruth, are expected to move to Gatlinburg about the first of September, and will occupy one of the park residences in the Twin Creeks area. Betty and Ruth will attend school in Gatlinburg.

Light has been active in the Bryson City Rotary Club and PTA, having served as President of both. Mrs. Light has been active in the Nantahala Girl Scout Council and the PTA.

"Neither shalt thou profane."
Lev. 15:21

In London we are told that when... St. Paul's was built by Christopher Wren... He gave his workers this decree... That cursing and impiety... Were banished and if one should use... Profanity that he would lose... His right to work, for it would be... Contempt of God's authority... Let's follow his experience... And treat God's name with reverence.
