

South Clyde CDP Sees Slides Of Field Days

By MRS. KYLE LINDSEY
Community Reporter

The C. D. P. had their regular meeting Monday night at 7:30. The group sang two songs and Mrs. Walter Rhodamer led the prayer. Business was conducted by the chairman, Loyde Justice, the report of the progress on the community house was discussed.

The Blue Cross - Blue Shield Insurance will be due the 10th of October, and Mrs. Sam Jackson was appointed to take Mrs. Henry Osborne's place as being responsible for the collecting of the insurance. Those who carry this insurance will please see that the money is turned in to Mrs. Jackson before the 10th of October.

The program was turned over to Mr. R. C. Sheffield, who came as a visitor from West Pigeon, and showed slides in color of the different community picnics and tours held this summer. Many of the South Clyde people saw their own picture on the slides. The people wish to thank Mr. Sheffield.

Plans are that Miss Kate Robinson, who toured Europe this past summer, will show some slides of her trip at the next meeting. It will be held the second Monday night in October, the 12th. The meeting was well attended this week.

The M. Y. F. of Louisa Chapel went to Heintoooga for a picnic supper last week. They were accompanied by Kyle Lindsey, counselor for the group. There were nineteen in the group. All reported a wonderful time.

The W.S.C.S. of the Louisa Chapel Church had a quilting at the community house last Wednesday.

Miss Laura Mae Justice has gone to Buffalo, S. C., to spend the winter.

Some of the girls and boys of South Clyde attended the football game at Marshall last Friday night.

Mr. P. C. Mann is in Mission Hospital, Asheville. The community wishes him a speedy recovery.

Congratulations go to the parents of a new baby daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Jackson.

The Central Methodist Church and the Louisa Chapel welcomes back for the coming year our pastors, Mr. George C. Starr of Clyde and Mr. O. N. Clark of Lake Junaluska. We are looking forward to a good year ahead.

Rev. Kenneth George of the Wesleyan Methodist Church held a baptismal service at the river near Canton Tuesday afternoon.

Some of the officers of the Home Demonstration Club attended the Council Meeting in Waynesville Tuesday.
