God's Design for New Men

A CHANGE IN THE HUMAN HEART IS NEEDED

Scripture—Jeremiah 31:31-34; Matthew 5:1-10; Mark 7:20-23; John 8:44; Philippians 4:13; 1 Peter 1:13-23.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

MODERN INVENTIONS have made our world and way of living so different from that of the ancients. Has the human heart changed? In some ways, the answer is yes, this writer feels.
 More is done to aid others physically, not only in our country but in many others. Let us read what the prophet Jeremiah considered necessary to make men new, and Jesus' words on the subject.
 In Jeremiah's time Judah was near the end of her independence. She was soon to be taken captive by Nebuchadnezzar, and, except for a brief period, she was never to know freedom again until our generation. Israel rebelled against Jehovah, but Jeremiah, looking ahead, saw how his people in what he called their new covenant.
 "Behold the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.
 This shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After these days, saith the Lord, I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and they shall be My people, and they shall teach no more one another, saying, 'The Lord hath said.'"

for they shall be called the children of God.
 "Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
 Children are often "persecuted" by playmates; for instance, the boy who is called a "sissy" because he will not do what others consider manly because he knows it is wrong. Also the girl who is being teased by her friends because she refuses to do something of which she knows her mother and her conscience disapprove. It is a persecution that is very real to these children.
 However, says J. R. Miller: "No one has ever endured persecution with submission and patience but the world has been made better.
 Every drop of martyr blood that has fallen to the ground has caused some plant of righteousness to grow more luxuriantly."
 Do you remember Nicodemus, a Jewish ruler who came to Jesus to learn of His gospel? Jesus had told him that he must be born to see the kingdom of God. How could he, a grown man, be born again? asked the puzzled man.
 Jesus' answer was, "Except a man be born of water and of the

MEMORY VERSE
 "I will put My Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in My statutes, and ye shall keep My judgments, and do them."—Ezekiel 36:27.

Every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord; for they shall all know Me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord; for I will forgive their ininiquity, and I will remember their no more."
 In the beautiful Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught His disciples the Christian way of life, and children may be made to realize early that Jesus' teaching is the way to happy living. While it is always easy to act in Christian ways, we can all, young and old, ask His help and receive it.
 Blessed are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Who are the poor in spirit? Not necessarily those who are not puffed up, but those who are ready to recognize their own faults and to learn to be better.
 Blessed are they which do hungry and thirst after righteousness; they shall be filled.
 Blessed are the merciful; for they shall obtain mercy.
 Blessed are the pure in heart;
 they shall see God.
 Blessed are the peacemakers;
 they shall be called the children of God.
 There is much in this lesson that can bring out discussion among children, young people or adults. These can lead to a better understanding of what a Christian life should be and promote a desire to live such a life.

THE SERIOUS AGE

There comes a time in the lives of most children when they lose interest in purely childish things and their minds turn to the serious side of life.

When that happens, they lay aside their toys, begin to read something besides "story books," listen to the conversation of older people, and take pride in their ability to accomplish things. This is the borderland between childhood and youth.

Parents should recognize these symptoms, and should endeavor to give the child the right slant on life. It is the period when characters are shaped.

What better influence could be desired than that of religion? A knowledge of God, the influence and associations of the Church, the thoughts of great teachers—these are the foundations of character that will stand any test.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
