The Church School is thriving with a swell in the attendance. An invitation is extended to all the people of the community to join in the worship and study of the school. Mr. M. C. Nix is the general Superintendent, with Mrs. Edith Edwards, Mrs. Hazel Morgan and Mr. Lon Evans, Divisional Superintendents. The school meets at 10 a.m.

At the morning hour, 11 a.m., Laymen's Day will be observed. Lay women and lay men of the congregation will conduct and participate in the service. The general subject will be "Christ Calls Men."

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE

Meet John and Mary Smith—and their child. See the pride and hope, the faith and love that shine like soft lights from the little girl's face? See the look of the future in her eyes?

Nothing in all the world could cause that reflection of happiness and contentment but a well-behaved child. Perhaps she has just spoken a piece. Perhaps she was singing a song. Perhaps she is playing with her small brother and sister.

But whatever she is doing, you will agree it is the result of wise and loving guidance. And you can be certain there is another member of the family not shown in the picture—God, the guide and Father of all of them.

Where parents and the Church work together for God, you will find true happiness.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday School Lesson

The War Against Beverage Alcohol

(Temperance Lesson)
 WHAT THE SCRIPTURES TEACH ON THIS SUBJECT

Read—Proverbs 23:29-35; 31:4-5; Isaiah 5:11-14; Matthew 18:6; 23:1-10; Romans 13:11-14; James 4:17.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 LESSON today deals with the world's major problem which has troubled all nations since ancient times right up to the present day—intemperance.

Primary class teachers may find this a rather difficult subject to present in an interesting and profitable manner to their children. But some young children acquainted with the problem of drinking intoxicating liquor in their own homes, or those of relatives or friends, it may be pointed out that alcohol makes fools of people and makes them act in a way that takes away their God-given intelligence, and often leads to quarrels and danger.

Young children should be taught that there is a wrong manner of behavior and that they must learn to resist the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil.

MEMORY VERSE
 Do not conform to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, acceptable, and perfect, will of God.—Romans 12:2.

to come down, for He would lodge with him that night. Zacchaeus was a chief publican who had gained much of his wealth dishonestly. Jesus might have upbraided him, but no, he would lodge with him—the sinner—and suddenly, Zacchaeus saw his whole life pass before him and felt that Jesus knew all about him.

Coming down from his perch he received his Lord joyfully, and acknowledging his wrongdoing, promised to undo as much as he could the evil results of it, and lead a moral life. So swiftly can the power of Christ turn a man from evil ways to goodness.

St. Paul admonishes the Romans to "cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness; not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying, but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof."

Finally, a word from St. James: "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."
