CESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1953

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

tudents njoy lenior Week Champion Farm Bureau In representing Waynesville and d into canton Tuesday for the of a three-day "Senior Week

"hampion" program. like number of seniors from on, Clyde and Reynolds high is visited Champion Wednesnd more than 150 seniors from er High School, Buncombe y, and Bethel and Fines 1954. high schools in Haywood ly, concluded the three-day m Thursday.

eer guidance sessions, movies, sive tour of the plant and in Champion's cafeteria each tured the 3rd annual "Senek" program.

that delegation of seniors in Area." sit to Champion Tuesday.

officers include Billy Best, ll Dee Ferguson, treasurer. ng seniors were welcomed guidance sessions each day.

SPECIAL EDITION OF "CHIPS," Champion's weekly periodical, is given the "once over" by these Waynesville High School senior class officers shortly after they arrived in Canton Tuesday morning for the "Senior Week at Champion" program, More than 150 seniors from Waynesville and Crabtree-iron Duff high schools visited Champion Tuesday. Left to right are Tom Cogaill, presiaent of stugent council; Jimmy Frady, president of senior class; Carl C. Andersen, Champion's supervisor of employee services; Barbara Fortner, senior class treasurer; Jack Swanger, vice-presigent of senior class; and Richard Green, class secretary.

(Photo by Deaton)

re than 150 graduating sen- State Start Fact ee-Iron Duff high schools, Finding Surveys

The North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation embarked this week on an intensive fact finding survey, which will be carried out by the organization's county units to determine what farmers desire in the Extension Service, have prepared way of a national farm program for a two-page questionnaire covering

The Secretary of Agriculture has program, which farmers will have each morning by J. Bruce Morford, Champion's manager of Industrial and Community Relations. Morford introduced H. A. Helder, vice-president and Carolina divis- that all farmers receive the necesion manager of the paper and fibre sary information concerning the

The results of the survey will A special panel, composed of be used not only in advising the nt: Harrison Caldwell, vice- Champion representatives, cover- Secretary of Agriculture, but to at; Roy Pope, secretary; and ed all angles of "General Informa- keep Congress and other groups tion" which concluded the career informed on grass-roots thinking, Farm Bureau officials said.

requested the general farm orgamzations of the nation to poil their respective members for opinions on such important issues as farm income stability and improvement, production and marketing adjustments, conservation, agricultural credit, research and education, and toreign trade.

State Farm Bureau officials, working with the North Carolina all aspects of the national farm an opportunity to fill out during a series of meetings between now and November 10.

County Farm Bureau leaders are being requested to make certain abtree-Iron Duff High School firm, who spoke on "Champion's survey in ample time for them to Effect on the Economy of this complete the questionnaire.

Congressmen Seek Funds For Smokies

Pledges to work for increased appropriations for the Great Smoky per Mountains National Park were made by North Carolina and Tennessee congressmen following a the new facilities they are now commission and the congressmen building." special meeting at Gatlinburg Tuesday.

Rep. George A. Shuford of Asheplan to follow through in support of increased funds in next year's appropriations.

A sub-committee of the joint commission was named to meet with the congressmen in Washington next Thursday to outline the great park more. Visitors have needs of the park to the proper authorities.

Rep. Baker agreed to arrange for a meeting with the Director of the Budget at the White House on that date.

They also planned to ask the aid of Sherman Adams, assistant to President Eisenhower.

were Kelly Bennett of Bryson City, mittees considering the park bud-William Medford of Waynesville, get, and in addition, will see all Edward J. Ashe of Knoxville, persons necessary in the capital. made by the conventional method, Tenn., and Herbert S. Walters of Morristown, Tenn.

Rep. Shuford declared, "I am 100 needed to protect a "great federal" and obtain a creamy light texture.

MORETHAN

on this Hew

JEWEL Watch

cent behind this movement. asset."

funds have been cut $70,000 from discuss the situation. ville, joined with Rep. Howard $550,000 recommended by the Bu- Information supplied by Park Baker and Rep. Carroll Reece of reau of the Budget. This gives the Superintendent Edward S. Hummel Tennessee in support of a definite park less than the previous year showed the park has six fewer with increased facilities to main- maintenance employes now than tain, Mr. Shufford said.

"I think too," Mr. Shufford said, "That it is up to the cities and lion visitors will be taken care of, towns surrounding the park to while in 1941 the number was only publicize the advantages of this been told too little about the recreational paradise we have here." Mr. Baker suggested that an emergency appropriation be asked to replace the $70,000 cut from this year's budget in view of the increased need.

The sub-committee members, Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Baker said, will carry through Named to the sub-committee by going before congressional com-

The park needs more funds for the The park is in "serious danger" increased number of visitors and from the cut in funds. He said the made a trip to Clingman's Dome He noted that for this year the and then met at the park office to were employed in 1941.

But this year more than two milabout 250,000, Hummel said.

Attending the meeting, besides the three congressional representatives were Bennett, chairman of the North Carolina National Park, Parkway and Forests Development Commission, Medford, Ashe and Jim Thompson of Knoxville, Walters and Charles McD. Puckett of

When you are using your electric mixer for a "butter-type" cake Mr. Ashe labeled the new action a "grass roots, by-state movement" speed so as to dissolve the sugar

LUTHER SHAW is editor of The

SECOND SECTION

Western Carolinian, at Cullowhee, this year where he is a senior. In addition to his duties as editor, he made the dean's list, for the last quarter, according to an announcement just made by Dr. Paul Reed, president. He is a graduate of Waynesville high school, and is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Shaw, of Auburn Road.

MEN! If you want a great watch-one that will give you years and years of service-THIS IS IT! But, you'd better HURRY because we've only got a LIMITED QUANTITY to sell at this exceptional LOW PRICE!

PROTECTED

Milos