Elks Will Have Party For Wives

Members of Elks Lodge of Waynesville will have a card party for their wives and guests Wednesday afternoon, November 4...

Pvt. Joe Howell of Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga., spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howell.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT EUGENE HUEBNER were married last week in the chapel of Bellevue Baptist, Memphis, Tenn. The bride is the former Miss Agnes Paula McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter McClure of Memphis, formerly of Waynesville.

Miss Agnes Paula McClure Weds Herbert E. Huebner

Miss Agnes Paula McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter McClure of Memphis, Tenn., formerly of Waynesville, became the bride of Herbert Eugene Huebner, Tuesday, October 27, in the chapel of the Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huebner of North Garland, Memphis.

Dr. Robert G. Lee officiated. The chapel was decorated with vases of white gladioli, burning white candles and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, with lace bolero. Her veil of illusion fell from a cap of lace and seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara McClure was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of lilac organza over blush pink net and taffeta and carried lavender asters tied purple satin.

Howard Baker was best man and Buddy Vinson was an usher. The mother of the bride was dressed in grey lace over rose taffeta with matching accessories and her corsage was of baby white vandals.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside at their new home at 4008 Grantham Drive, Whitehaven, a suburb of Memphis.

The J. H. Howells Entertain On Sunday Night

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., entertained in their home Sunday evening as a courtesy to their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gist Finley of York S. C., and to Col. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., who were observing their forty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. Boyd Owen greeted the guests at the front door and the hosts and honor guests received in the living room.

Miss Nancy Killian presided at the dining table, which was centered with an arrangement of fruit and vegetables representing a farmer taking his harvest to market in a horse-drawn wagon.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Weaver Kirkpatrick and Mrs. John Kirkpatrick.

Ten members present had as their guests Mrs. Porter Frady, Mrs. Jack Bowen, of Mobile, Ala., and Mrs. Bertha M. Singletary, of Lumberton.

Mrs. Singletary spoke briefly on "The Grooming of Flowers," and the club heard reports by Mrs. J. L. Edwards on the District 1 meeting held recently in Franklin and by Mrs. Wright on Horticulture.

The club voted to place six dish gardens in the Haywood County Hospital; to back and join the Waynesville Garden Club Council; and to make Christmas decorations which will be put up for sale.

Club Plans Show Of Spring Bulbs, Shrubs

Plans are being made by the Richland Garden Club for a spring flower show of blooming bulbs and flowering shrubs. The show will be held the first week in April.

Announcement of the show is being made at this time to give those who wish to exhibit an opportunity to plant additional bulbs and shrubs.

Mrs. J. H. Way will be general chairman of the show.

Material Interest

By VERA WINSTON

INTERESTING fabric alliances appear time and time again this season, making for a new approach to fashion. In this dress, for instance, tweed and satin get together nicely. The salt and pepper tweed is set off by black satin piping and a bow at the neck. The dress is zipped in front to below the waist where the inverted pleat breaks away. Draping at hips is worked around the side seams.

Mrs. Cooper Is Hostess For W. Canton Club

Mrs. Marshal Cooper was hostess for the West Canton Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Cromer Crisp, presided and the devotional was given by Mrs. W. S. McElrath.

During the business session, a discussion was held on Achievement Day plans and the Farm Bureau Membership Drive.

Mrs. Cromer Crisp, Mrs. W. S. McElrath, and Mrs. Marshal Cooper were recognized as 100% members for the club year.

Project leaders' reports were: Food Conservation, by Mrs. J. E. Corzine; Foods and Nutrition, by Mrs. Marshal Cooper; Clothing, by Mrs. James Hyde; Home Beautification, by Mrs. W. S. McElrath; Home Gardens by Mrs. Theodore Clark; and Home Management by Mrs. James Hyde.

The discussion on the "Care of Feet" was given by Miss Jean Childers.

Mrs. Cromer Crisp will be hostess for the next meeting.
