

Crabtree Begins Series Of Laymen's Services

By Mrs. Millard Ferguson Community Reporter

The Crabtree Methodist Charge, under the leadership of the pastor, the Rev. A. R. Davis, is using every 5th Sunday this year as laymen's day. The services will be rotated among the 4 churches. Last Sunday, the Charge met to worship with Davis Chapel, Frank Davis delivered the message, which was not Scriptural but the age-old adage, "Great oaks from little acorns grow." He emphasized the influence of all our individual efforts for good put into concerted action and how such effort has revolutionized the world from Abraham to Christ to the present time.

M/Sgt. LOWELL R. ARRINGTON, son of Mrs. W. R. Arrington, Route 1, Waynesville, was recently awarded the Bronze Star Medal before leaving Korea for the U. S. Arrington, whose wife and child live at 3341 N. Mullen St., Tacoma, Wash., was cited for his meritorious service as infantry operations chief of the IX Corps' operations and training section. A veteran of 12 years' Army service, he also wears the Combat Infantryman Badge. The master sergeant arrived in Korea last March after serving at Fort Lewis, Wash. (U. S. Army Photo)

The WMS of the Crabtree Baptist Church is holding its week of prayer services at the church each evening this week, Monday through Friday, at 7:30. They will meet on Friday at 6 p.m. for a covered dish supper, after which they will join the other County Baptist WMS in the Waynesville First Baptist Church for a service. A returned missionary will talk on mission needs.

The Crabtree Charge Methodist Youth Fellowship program at the Crabtree Church Sunday evening was well prepared and well attended.

Our sick list is confined to Mrs. W. J. McCrary, Sr. It is a matter of distress to the entire community to hear that "Aunt Callie", who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few weeks ago.

S. L. Smart, another of our veteran residents, is not feeling too well at his home here.

We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Becky Presnell felt Thanksgiving Day while visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Walker, on Fines Creek. She suffered a break of the collar bone and it is hoped that there are no further complications.

Weaver Parkins, of Panther's Creek, suffered several fractured bones and a badly damaged truck last week when his brakes gave way with a full load of logs on a down grade in our community. We are happy that his injuries were no worse than they are and that he is improving in the Haywood County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirkpatrick, the latter was vacationing and visiting friends in Eastern Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Safford spent the weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Safford in Anniston, Ala.

The Rev. and Mrs. T. G. Highfill, of Lincolnton, were visitors during the week of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ferguson, their uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Coleman, Clara and Robert, of Newberry, S. C., were weekend guests of Mrs. Coleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kirkpatrick.

Several of our football fans attended the Canton-Waynesville game Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Ferguson have made the announcement of a new granddaughter, Rebecca Ann, born to Mr. and Mrs. Joel Ferguson in Vandkye, Mich. Mrs. Ferguson is the former, Miss Martha Rogers of Asheville.

Margaret Noland returned to Greensboro College on Sunday after spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Noland.

Ruth, who is a student at Blanton's in Asheville, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Nesbitt, Joe, Bob and Jack, spent Sunday with Mr. Nesbitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nesbitt of Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ferguson were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Luther of Enka.

N. A. Ferguson was in Newport, Tenn., last week on business.

Jim Davis, A 2/C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Davis, has been stationed at Clovis Air Force Base, New Mexico, and sailed last week from San Francisco California for Korea.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Davis on Sunday were their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jim Davis; Mrs. Raymond Swayngin, Miss Dot Swayngin and Mrs. Hillard Moody of Waynesville and their son with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis of Allens Creek, and Miss Nina Medford and Ronney Hall of Clyde.

Disease-Free Pigs Reused

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — Hormel Institute researchers tell how to raise disease-free pigs.

The pigs, encased in the sow's uterus, are removed by surgery after the sow is immobilized by carbon monoxide. The pigs are then raised to maturity in isolated quarters and are fed pasteurized cows' milk.

The Cost of a Common Cold

The so-called "common cold" has long been causing the public an annual loss of more time and money than all other ailments combined. If you are run-down and your resistance is low, there may be some minor condition unknown to you causing the trouble. Protect yourself against the menace of colds by having your physician check your system without delay. Remember, a "common cold" often results in a prolonged siege of influenza or pneumonia.
