One Human Race ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Matthew 6:9; 22:34-40; Acts 10; 17:24-28; Romans 10:12-13; Galatians 2:11-14; 5:28

By Alfred J. Buescher

The Pharisees, meeting together, sent one of their number, a lawyer, to tempt Jesus by asking Him which is the great commandment of the law? Christ answered that love of God and fellowman was the greatest of all commandments.

A certain Roman centurion, a devout man who feared God and prayed always, had a vision of an angel who said that his prayers were heard, and told him to send to Joppa to seek and bring back one, Simon Peter.

At Joppa Peter too had a vision in which he was shown that nothing created by God should be judged unclean. Pondering the meaning of the sheet let down from above, he was advised of the coming of Cornelius' men.

Before those at Cornelius' home, Peter said: "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons, but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him." MEMORY VERSE—Acts 10:34-35.
