Christmas Dance Will Be Colorful Social Event

Glitter and gaiety will mark the Christmas dance which will be held by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority Saturday night in the Waynesville armory.

The decorations will feature a huge Christmas tree in the center of the ball room and vari-colored spotlights will be focused on hundreds of Christmas balls.

Music for the dance will be furnished by Ted Lampley and his Cavaliers of Hendersonville.

Miss Edna Summerrow is serving as general chairman for the event with the following committee chairmen: publicity, Miss Bernice Harrell; decorations, Mrs. Cecil Blanton and Mrs. Raymond Caldwell; and tickets, Mrs. Hugh Potts and Miss Edith Summerrow.

Advance tickets may be obtained from members of the sorority or at the Lady Fayre Beauty Shop. Proceeds will be used for charitable projects of the sponsoring group.

Engagement Of Miss Summerrow Is Announced

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Edith Marian Summerrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland Summerrow of Hazelwood, to Murray Ray Whisenhunt, son of Mrs. Walter Murray Whisenhunt of Waynesville and the late Mr. Whisenhunt, was made at a tea given Saturday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Way as hostess in her home on Main Street. The wedding date was revealed as January 16.

The announcement was inscribed on miniature wedding bells which were presented to the guests on arrival by Marietta Campbell, granddaughter of the hostess. Also receiving at the front door were Mrs. Jonathan Woody and Mrs. Hugh Massie.

Mrs. Hilliard Atkins introduced the callers to the receiving line which was composed of the hostess and bride-elect and the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. G. C. Summerrow and Miss Edna Summerrow.

Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Jr. and Mrs. Hugh Sloan, Sr., received in the entrance hall and Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. Ben Sloan received at the entrance to the dining room.

The home was decorated throughout with Christmas greens and candles with the exception of the dining room which was arranged in the bridal motif. The table was covered with a cut work linen cloth and held a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums flanked by white candles in silver holders.

Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn presided at the tea service and assisting in serving were Mrs. Charles Way, Miss Jackie Sue Messer, Miss Joy Woody, Mrs. Joe Jack Atkins, Miss Mary Sue Crocker, and Mrs. Hugh Potts.

Around one hundred guests called during the designated hour.
