

Santa Can Cheer The Men

By FRANK ECK

WHAT TO GET DAD for Christmas is the big question at this time of year.

It's not just a tizzy it's a fever to think back, "What did father get me during the spring, summer or fall?"

Will you find that this one will lead to a dozen others? "What was wrong with that game?" or "What was it for the day he went out?" or "Was it the ball or the oyster that oozed him that he almost rolled 250?"

FATHER is a golf bug he will enjoy the "Lazy Golfer," it can be used at any time, except maybe in winter when the grass is a

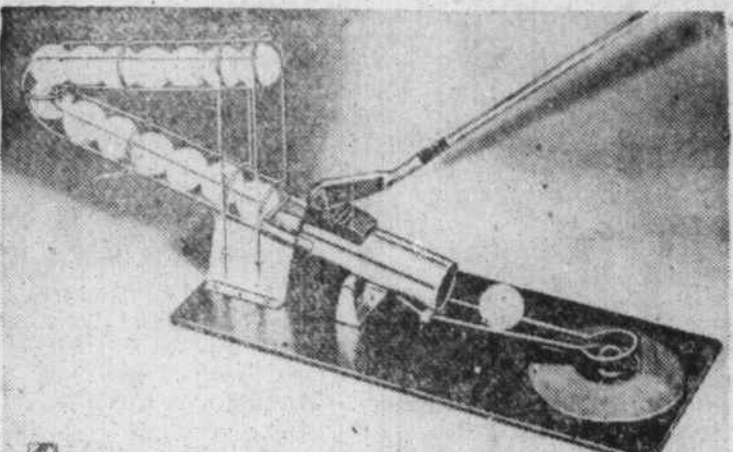

"Lazy Golfer" tees up 15 automatic scooping and putting mechanism can be used in the parlor rug.

After hitting the ball on the tee the ball is released by the trigger head to a trigger operation sends another ball to the tee. It is primarily designed to help a fellow golfer swing for the short or long shot, the most delicate in golf.

Spalding Co. A. G. Spalding Co. retails for $12.95.

FOR THE SPORTSMAN - a new quiet outboard motor that lets you listen to your favorite ball game, converse in normal tones and hear the slap of waves against the bow of the boat. The motor rates 5 1/2 horsepower.

GOLF IN THE LIVING ROOM can be played on Christmas day with this Lazy Golfer setup which tees up 15 balls (plastic for indoors - real for outdoors). After each drive, a touch of the club head on the trigger releases the next ball without any scooping or fussing on the duffer's part. (Spalding Photo)

REMEMBER when dad said it was expensive to own a boat? Don't be say something about outboard motor being the best for weekends and that it is just as simple to operate as a power lawnmower?

Experienced sailors who go in for week-end boating suggest runabouts 14 to 16 feet.

California Catamaran (Inglewood, Calif.) is coming out with a new Gay Cat super sailer. It is a catamaran that has been clocked as high as 24 miles an hour under sail. It will also go well with an outboard motor. It is $995, less sails. A suit of sails can be bought for $104.

REMEMBER dad fussing and fuming when he couldn't find those new weak fish hooks? Or remember the day he was fit to be tied when a wash wet his new reel?

All this helter-skelter arrangement can be overcome with a tackle box such as the new Ocean City Fiber Glass lightweight box. It is 16 inches long, 7 1/2 inches wide and 7 inches high, weighs two and a half pounds and retails for $12.50. It holds floats, knives, reels, lines, sinkers and just about everything but the rod.

IF DAD had trouble gripping his bowling ball why not give him a gift certificate for one made to order? The Brunswick-Balke-Coller Co. of Chicago features the type ball used by Marion Ladewig, who has won the national women's team title the last four years.

IF LITTLE BROTHER is a football player he should get a kick out of the new "Safe-T-Vue" face protector. It may make him look like a monster but he'll be more apt to come out of a scrimmage with his usual facial expressions. Rawlings of St. Louis, the manufacturer of the plastic face guard, which can be attached to a football helmet, says 53.9 percent of all recorded injuries in football last year were injuries in the face and dental area.

It sure would be nice to give little brother more than his two front teeth for Christmas.

SAVE FACE, in football with this plastic protector. Coaches hail it as a means to reduce the high number of facial injuries. (Rawlings)

There's a Pipe To Fit The Face of Every Man

HERE'S THE RIGHT pipe for that man's Christmas stocking. So get someone your man to Santa and get a pipe that fits the face. And thin men prefer straight pipes, heavier, stocky men go for curved stems. Young men take to novelty designs. Lively men prefer pipes with generous bows - a leisurely smoke that lasts. Desk clerks, architects, engineers, like a flat bottom pipe that will stand when they set it down - they are used to using more matches than tobacco.

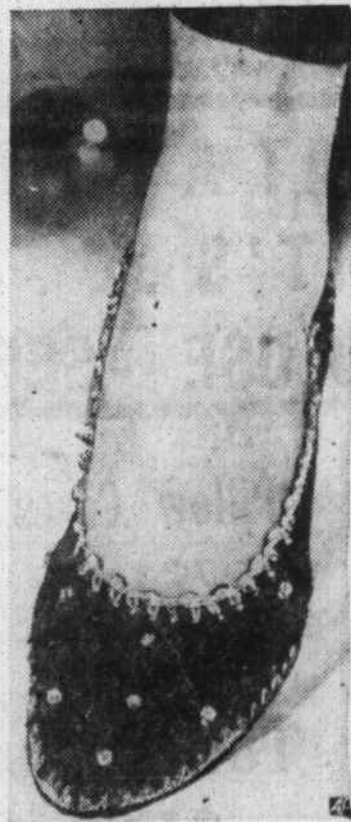

Although comparatively few pipes are smoked by women, pipe experts estimate that 70 per cent of all pipes purchased during the big Christmas shopping season are selected by women. Look for a pipe he doesn't have. Every pipe smoker enjoys a change.

Don't select an itty-bitty pipe for a big man, or a large over-the-top pipe for a streamlined guy.

Purchase your pipe at a reliable store. Don't fall for pipes and down from $15 to $1. You may be buying "firewood".

Because pipe smokers usually detest any other kind of a smoke except on carrying a pipe even when in formal dress, Levinson's has designed pipes that won't bulge the pocket. This and flat, white and black these pipes look right with black ties or white shirts. And these are considered once-in-a-while smokers. Levinson's convinced that a man can enjoy a big bowl while reading, viewing TV or watching outdoor sports. But he contends that big bowls are bulky to carry around all day.

This Christmas a sure fire hit is a combination pipe and alligator slippers gift. These should have special appeal to women who want to keep their husbands home by the fireside.

TWINKLE TOES-This black velvet slipper has hand-attached rhinestones and gold metallic Laxtex trim. Sole is leather; lining is satin. Pearls can be had in place of rhinestones. (Gustave Design)

AN OUTDOOR MAN would like these will make a hit with the man at Christmas if you give a gift that is close to his heart. Hand-tied flies, tins of tennis balls, golf balls, an order for a pair of golf shoes, new fishing gear, a special fishing rod, ski wax, skis are just a few of the specialties for his stocking.

CANDY IS HANDY

is a good idea to keep a few of candy and lollipops on hand for that unexpected little or big who brings you a Christmas package at Yuletide.

Foreign Doctors Study In America

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—U. S. medical schools have become a magnet for graduate medical students from nearly all countries outside the Iron Curtain.

That report was given to the Association of American Medical Colleges at its annual convention here. The report said 2,751 foreign physicians are in the United States and the list of applicants is growing steadily.
