Miss Mary Jane Leatherwood, Bethel School Home Economics Teacher, will be the instructor for the workshop.

Kiwanis Officers Head Guest List At 'Florida Night'

A number of Kiwanis officials will head the list of guests at the Waynesville Kiwanis Club's annual "Florida Night" Tuesday evening. The principal speaker will be the District Governor of North and South Carolina, Clarence J. Hyslop of Elkin. Also present will be the District Secretary, Herb Hennig of Darlington, S. C.; Past International President, Dr. Charles Armstrong of Salisbury; Lt. Governor Stanley Moore of Morganton, several Past District Governors, Club Presidents and delegations from the 12 other Kiwanis Clubs in the Western North Carolina Division. Delegations are also expected from Blue Ridge, Ga., and Gatlinburg, Tenn. District Governor H. Clay Anderson of the Florida District has made tentative reservations, with the promise of making every effort to attend. The "Florida Night" custom was originated to pay special tribute to the many Florida Kiwanians who spend their vacations in Western North Carolina. It has been growing in size and popularity each year, with some 75 to 100 Florida Kiwanis members expected this year. The program will take place at the Central Elementary School building, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Fried chicken will be served by members of the school cafeteria staff and the ladies of the P.T.A.

Soil Supervisors' Quarterly Meeting Held Wednesday

The economic problems facing Haywood County farmers were among the topics discussed at the quarterly meeting of the Haywood County Soil Conservation District Supervisors Wednesday in Waynesville. The new North Carolina Conservation Plan was adopted for use by the Haywood district. The Supervisors also authorized a request to the State Wildlife Resources Commission for a memorandum covering the acquisition of wildlife planting stock for local distribution. The Supervisors plan to request office space in the Court House at the September meeting of the Board of County Commissioners.

Present at the meeting were Herschell Rogers, chairman; Van Wells, vice-chairman; Jule Boyd, secretary; T. W. Bridges, Area Conservationist and Roy R. Beck, Work Unit Conservationist for Haywood County.

Registration Date At St. John's School Next Mon.

The Rev. Lawrence Newman, superintendent of St. John's School, announces registration for all students who will attend St. John's Grade, High School, or Kindergarten, on Monday, August 23 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Classes will begin on Tuesday, August 31 at 9 a.m. Dismissal on the first day of school will be at 12 Noon. The teaching staff for the 1954-55 scholastic year includes Sister Francis Marie, principal, Sister Mary Alfred, Sister Mary Angelus, Sister Mary Berard, Sister Mary Bernadine, Sister Mary Jared, and Sister Mary Behediet. Sister Jared will replace Sister Mary Nonna, who will be teaching in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The music department will be staffed by Sister Mary Anthony and Sister Donna Marie, who will replace Sister Mary Corine. Sister Corine will teach music at Middleton, Wisconsin. Since the Waynesville bus for St. John's will be discontinued, parents are asked to make other arrangements for transportation, such as pooling cars. The Canton bus service will be as in previous years.

Canton Red Cross Chairmen Listed

Dr. Carey T. Wells, Jr., newly elected chairman of Canton's American Red Cross Chapter, has announced committee chairmen for the coming year. Woodrow Williams has been named chairman of the Blood program, succeeding Louis E. Gates. Mr. Gates will continue his service with the Regional Blood Program, as member of the Executive Committee serving Western North Carolina, East Tennessee and part of South Carolina. Mrs. Mark Reno was appointed chairman for the Junior Red Cross to replace J. Harmon Moore, who found it necessary to resign, after devoting a number of years to that part of the Red Cross program in Canton. Other committee chairmen appointed by the Chapter Chairman are: Service Groups, Mrs. J. H. Moore, with Mrs. Noah Swafford, vice chairman; Entertainment and Supply, Miss Louise Slaughter; First Aid, Ralph Crawford; Water Safety, Woody Robertson; Disaster, John Stevens, Jr.; Publicity, J. M.
