MRS. BROWN IMPROVING
Mrs. J. J. Brown is reported to be improving at the Haywood County Hospital where she has been a patient for the past ten days.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM GARDNER McCRAHY were married Saturday, June 4, at 5 p.m. in the Dellwood Methodist Church. The bride is the former Miss Mary Jacqueline Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Moody of Waynesville.

Mary Jacqueline Moody Weds William G. McCrary

Miss Mary Jacqueline Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Moody of Waynesville, became the bride of William Gardner McCrary in a double ring, candlelight ceremony in the Dellwood Methodist Church, Saturday, June 5, at 5 p.m. Mr. McCrary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCrary of Clyde. The Rev. Grady Barringer, pastor of the church, officiated and a program of music was presented by Mrs. Grady Barringer, pianist, and Miss Rosalyn Ammons, vocalist.

The altar was decorated with ferns, baskets of white gladioli, and branched candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over duchess satin designed with fitted lace bodice, Queen Anne collar, and long tapered sleeves ending in points over the hands. The floor length bouffant skirt was accented with wide panels of scalloped lace and she wore a two-tiered flinger-tip veil of bridal illusion attached to a cap of lace outlined in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby's breath, centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ann McCracken Rhinehart, former schoolmate of the bride. She wore a strapless, ballerina length gown of yellow embroidered lace and net, with matching stole. The bouffant skirt featured a panel of dotted nylon net and she wore a headdress similar to that of the bride. Her bouquet was of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. B. Schmersahl of Key West, Florida and Mrs. R. B. Owens, of Waynesville, aunts of the bride. Their gowns were identical in design, one in orchid net and one in acquet net, with strapless bodices and full skirts trimmed with apron-edges of lace and net. They wore net stoles, and headdresses matching their gowns, designed of net and summer flowers, and carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Karen Marie McCrary, niece of the bridegroom, and Deborah Marguerite Moody, cousin of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. Their dresses were in shades of pink and blue taffeta with overskirts of matching nylon net, and they carried bouquets of summer flowers.

Apita Louise McCrary of Waynesville, Route 2, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Bonnie Harold Jackson of Asheville was ringbearer. The flower girl wore a dress similar to that of the bride and carried a basket of red roses.

Ben'on McCrary served as best man for his brother and ushers were James Roy Moody, uncle of the bride, and S. E. McCrary, brother of the bridegroom. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Mount Valley Inn on the Socx Gap Road. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. S. E. McCrary, Mrs. Archie Sale, Mrs. Clayton Alexander, Miss Doris McCrary, Miss Margaret Ferguson, Mrs. Fred R. Moody, and Mrs. Robert Ferguson. The mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a white linen suit with blue accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. McCrary is a graduate of the Waynesville Township High School.

Mr. McCrary was graduated from St. John's High School and attended Appalachian State Teacher's College. He will enter North Carolina State College this summer and the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Burgen.
