Miss Kappy Stewart Is Bride Of Ronald Jordan

Miss Kappy Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Stewart of Maggie Valley, formerly of Florence, S. C., was married to Ronald Jordan on Sunday, June 5, at 12:30 p. m. in the St. Paul Methodist Church at Florence. The date was the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ellis Jordan, of Florence.

The Rev. Joel Cannon of Pickens performed the ceremony and a program of music was presented by Mrs. George McCowan, organist, Mrs. W. Q. Parker, vocalist, and Hal Strain, violinist.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style, street-length dress of imported navy shantung with white lace and rhinestone trim and a hat of matching white lace with a short veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple-throated white orchid.

Miss Jean Gilchrist of Florence was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of pink tissue taffeta with white accessories and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

R. Ellis Jordan served as best man for his son and ushers were James Frazier and Charles Hannah, both of Florence.

After the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Stewart, mother of the bride wore an aqua embroidered sheath dress with a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of rose linen and lace with a corsage of carnations.

Following a wedding trip in Western North Carolina the couple will spend the summer at Smokey Shadows Lodge in Maggie Valley after which they will go to Clemson College where the bridegroom will continue his education.

The bride was graduated from McClenaghan High School in Florence and attended Columbia College, Columbia, S. C. where she was chosen Freshman Beauty Queen and an attendant for the May Court. She was also chosen this year by John Roberts Powers as queen of the beauty section of the Columbia College year book.

Mr. Jordan was graduated from McClenaghan High School where he was captain of the football team and judged the most valuable player. He also received the good sportsmanship award. He is a rising sophomore at Clemson College.
