Miss Eugenia Boone Weds James Parham Jeter

Miss Eugenia Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Haywood Boone of Waynesville, became the bride of James Parham Jeter, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Russell Jeter also of Waynesville, in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, July 31, at 4:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Earl H. Brendall, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows, and a program of music was presented by Mrs. W. R. Wilson, organist, and Charles Isley, Jr., soloist. Mr. Isley sang "At Dawn" and "Ruth's Song," prior to the ceremony and Miss Mozelle Liner sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra against a background of ferns and palms.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over bridal satin fashioned with fitted bodice accented with scalloped neckline. The long tapered sleeves ended in points over the hands and the full gathered skirt ended in a chapel train. Her two-tiered finger-tip veil of French illusion fell from a half-shell of rosepoint lace trimmed with sequins and seed pearls and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a colonial bouquet centered with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Sam Byrd of Bunneville, N. C., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mozelle Liner of Waynesville, Mrs. George Winecoff of Raleigh, and Mrs. Dick Wilson of Canton. The attendants were gowned alike in blue lace cocktail dresses, similar in design to that of the bride. Their headdresses were half-shells of matching lace and they carried bouquets of mixed summer flowers.

Dr. Jeter served as best man for his son and ushers were Robert and David Jeter, brother of the bridegroom, Joe Boone, brother of the bride, and Robert Brannon, all of Waynesville.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the dining room of the church. Assisting were Mrs. Joe Boone, Mrs. Allen Boone, and Mrs. James Boone, sisters-in-law of the bride; the Misses Sara, Ruth, and Linda Boone, sisters of the bride; Miss Mary Wayne Crymes of Charlotte, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Pink Francis, Miss Bessie Sue Francis, Miss Betty Felmet, Miss Julia Ann Stovall, and Miss Shirley Sheffield.

The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride wore a champagne colored two-piece dress with matching accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Jeter will be at home on the Asheville Road, Waynesville.

The bride attended Waynesville High School, Mars Hill Junior College, and Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and was graduated from the North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Nursing in Winston-Salem. At present she is a member of the nursing staff of the Haywood County Hospital.

The bridegroom was graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and the University of Richmond, Va. and was a member of Phi Theta Delta Fraternity. He served three years in the U. S. Air Force with duty in the United States and Europe and now holds
