A BIG SHOVE sent this empty coal car off the end of the track at Lee Coal company Friday, and the end landed on the sidewalk of Depot Street. The car pushed over a heavy steel fence, and dropped a pair of trucks underneath. No one was hurt as the car shot off the end of the elevated spur track.

WCC Announces Expansion Of Communication Arts Courses

Dean W. E. Bird of Western Carolina College has announced a significant expansion in course offerings in the field of communication arts.

This is an expansion of courses traditionally labeled English, both oral and written, and will embrace radio and television production. Related courses have been part of the curriculum at WCC for several years.

For the past seven years, Dr. Paul J. Ritter, graduate of the University of Southern California, has headed the audio-visual work at WCC, and the expanded program will continue under his direction.

These courses are on the order of concentrations offered in Journalism and Drama. It is expected that cinematography will be added to the curriculum at some future date.

Station "WVOO" is operated on the campus during the regular school year, with studio and controls located in Stillwell building. The station is affiliated with the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System, and will be used extensively in connection with the expanded communications program.

Mrs. Post Is Termed No. 1 Washington Hostess

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Somehow I have missed all the public opinion polls, but if anyone ever asked who I thought was the No. 1 hostess of the capital, my vote would go to Mrs. Merriweather Post.

Elegant, poised, exquisitely groomed and possessing an ageless beauty, the wealthy recently divorced wife of Joseph E. Davies, former U. S. ambassador to Moscow, entertains on the grand scale with effortless grace.

Her luncheons are as fabulous as her famous dinner and garden parties and the round and square dances she loves to give. Furthermore, she seems to enjoy her parties as much as her guests. Though they must certainly take a lot of meticulous planning and behind-the-scenes doing, they run smoothly, with no apparent hitch.

At a recent luncheon she gave at the swank Sutherland Club here, the hostess, in an impeccably tailored grey silk dressmaker suit and small hat of white silk flowers, welcomed each of her 96 guests. She sat at a long table, facing the group, with Mrs. Van Roffen, wife of the Netherlands ambassador, at her right and Lady McKins, wife of the British ambassador, at her left. Also at her table were Mrs. Robert Guggenheim, wife of the former U. S. ambassador to Portugal, an accomplished hostess herself, and Mrs. Buchanan Merryman, the famous Aunt Bessie of the Duchess of Windsor.

Among the other guests were Mrs. John Foster Dulles, wife of the secretary of state; Mrs. Ahmed Hussein, wife of the Egyptian ambassador; Mrs. Sherman Adams, wife of the President's assistant;

Mehaffey line N. 89° 30' W. 215 feet to a stake in said road; thence with road three calls as follows: S. 29° W. 75 feet; S. 21° 50' W. 50 feet; S. 16° 20' W. 126 1/2 feet to the BEGINNING, containing 1.45 acres, more or less, as per survey and plat of R. H. Terrell, Surveyor, made April 24, 1950.

COMPREHENDING and INCLUDING Lots Nos 1 and 2 and the Southern one-half of Lot No. 3 of the Jack Felmet property as per plat recorded in Map Book "E", page F-5, Haywood County Registry, and a lot lying immediately South of said Lot No. 1 and fronting 126 1/2 feet on Howell Mill Road.

Sale made pursuant to the power and authority conferred upon the undersigned Trustee by that Deed of Trust dated June 19, 1950, executed by Frank R. Williams and others, and recorded in Book of Deeds of Trust 75, page 26, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Haywood County, to which instrument and record reference is hereby made for all the terms and conditions thereof, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured.

This August 17, 1955. A. T. WARD, Trustee, 2555-A 22-29 S 5-12

Mrs. Arthur Radford, wife of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Mrs. Matthew Ridgway, wife of the retiring Army chief of staff.

After the luncheon Mary Van Rensselaer Thayer, Washington writer, gave a humor-spiced account of a recent tour of the Belgian Congo and her visit with the pigmies. Mary said she took the trip after covering two political conventions to "get away someplace where there were no cocktail parties." She was amazed, she said, when the King of the pigmies told her that he had been a guest at her coming-out party at the Ritz in New York.

Ninevah Church Group To Have Benefit Supper

By MRS. AZE GRIFFIN Community Reporter

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Ninevah Baptist Church is sponsoring an ice cream supper to be held at the home of Mrs. Jimmie Kelly on Auburn Road, Saturday night, August 27, at 7 o'clock. The public is invited. Proceeds will go to the church.

The W. M. U. will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and family, Mrs. James Luther of Swannanoa, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitesides were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aze Griffin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ledford spent Sunday with relatives in Andrews.

Average prices paid by Tar Heel farmers for around half the feed items remained stable during the month ending April 15. Mixed dairy feeds, with the exception of the 19 per cent and over protein, bran, corn meal, laying mash, and scratch grain, were unchanged.

FT. BRAGG — Three crack communications teams, each completely motorized and equipped with more than $70,000 worth of electronic equipment, have been formed by the 30th Infantry Division from elements of the 30th Signal Company from Canton.

The three sections, each with three radios having transmitting ranges of over 100 miles, stood by ready for use in any areas hit by Hurricane Diane.

A four-man team operates each section, including the team chief and three radio operators. The teams were under the command of Lt. J. W. Winfrey, Division radio officer, of Clyde.

Power for the three radios is supplied by a 10,000-watt gasoline driven generator in a trailer behind the radio truck.

The three team monitored the CAP radio network over which orders will come if the communications teams are needed.

Hazelwood Lions Will Hear High Point Man

John H. Kalte, of High Point, will be the speaker at the Hazelwood Lions Club meeting Tuesday night. The program will be under the sponsorship of Kyle Campbell's committee on membership.

Ralph Summerrow, president, will be in charge of the meeting.
