320 Books Are Circulated To Clyde Children

The Reading Circle, sponsored by the Clyde Woman's Club, has completed its summer program with a record of 320 books circulated to 23 children.

The Circle met weekly under the direction of Mrs. Mark Haynes with Miss Rosemary Newman and Miss Diane Haynes as assistants.

The top reading record went to Lois Gail and Monty Buecker, who read 38 books each.

The final meeting of the group was held last week when a film was shown by Howard Wooten, wildlife protector, and a picnic was enjoyed. Refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Troy Stamey, Mrs. Charles Edge, and Mrs. Roy McKinnish.

Sorority To Have Special Ceremony

The Alpha Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will have a Ritual of Jewels ceremony Thursday night, August 25, at Jones Farm.

Dinner will be served at 6:45 o'clock and the ceremony will follow. Mrs. Raymond Caldwell, chapter president, will preside.

Receiving the Ritual of Jewels degree will be Mrs. Arthur Paul Evans, Mrs. J. T. Russell, Mrs. Don Morrow, Mrs. David Noland, Mrs. H. C. Turner, and Miss Besie Sue Francis.

Long's Chapel WSCS Will Meet Tuesday

A regular meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Long's Chapel Methodist Church will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

Mrs. Ernest Carter will present the program.

Methodist Women Attend Church Meet

Several Methodist women of this vicinity met yesterday to attend the annual school of missions and Christian service at Frontier College in Asheville.

This is a school and workshop sponsored by the woman's society of Christian service of the western North Carolina conference of the Methodist Church.

The school will close late Thursday and a similar program will be held for the Wesleyan Service Guild of the church over the week end.

Among those attending the school are Mrs. Henry Gaooy, Mrs. Marion Cooper, Mrs. J. W. Rowler, Jr., Miss Louise Ballard, and Miss Kay Ballard.

Miss Alma Browning and Miss Lura Wright will be among the delegates to the Wesleyan Guild conference.

Three Leave For Long Beach, Calif.

Miss Virginia and Miss Elaine Francis and their brother, T. L. Francis, left Saturday by car for Long Beach, Calif., where Miss Virginia Francis has accepted a teaching position for the coming year. They were accompanied as far as Memphis, Tenn. by William Stevens of Canton.

Both the Misses Francis are graduates of Woman's College, Greensboro. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harley Francis.

Richland Garden Club Will Meet Thursday

The Richland Garden Club will hold a regular luncheon meeting Thursday at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. G. Tassell on Chestnut Park Drive. Mrs. John Smathers and Mrs. J. H. Smathers, Jr. will be co-hostesses.

Miss Nancy Killian and Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick will present a program on "Fall Planting".

Mrs. W. F. Swift will preside.

B And PW Club To Have Annual Picnic

The Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its annual summer picnic Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ben Phillips. Supper will be served at 7:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Ruby Bryson, president, will preside at the brief business session, after which the evening will be devoted to recreational activities.

Million Dollar Tip

THE ORIGINAL idea was to have Beverly Anderson, "Emerald Queen," taken in a gem-loaded wheelbarrow to the American National Jewelry Show in New York. But guard Harry Kravit, unaccustomed to this type of transportation, tips the barrow, spilling the queen and her bejeweled pooch to the sidewalk.
