Dayton Rubber 10-Year Club Staging Dinner 10th

"Ladies to the center and dosi-do" will be the call for the "Old Virginia Reel" Saturday at Camp Hope when the Ten Year Club from The Dayton Rubber Company hold their Second Annual Dinner.

The Virginia Reel is that lively dance of the Scottish Highlanders that has stood the test of time to some extent here in the mountains of Western North Carolina and members of the club will perform with the full regalia of several years ago.

The dress for the evening will be "Old Fashioned" to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of The Dayton Rubber Company in Dayton, Ohio. Prizes will be given for the best dressed gentleman and the best dressed lady.

Beginning at 3:00 p.m., the group will start gathering for an afternoon of softball and other outdoor activities. For those that prefer the less active pastime, the checker boards.

Some of the people are making plans to arrive in the "Old Fashioned Way" and the attics throughout the county have been searched for the dresses and shoes of days gone by.

Final plans for the event are now complete according to E. M. Rothermel, president of the Ten Year Club. Various committees have been planning and working for the past several weeks in preparation for Saturday.

Forty three new members are scheduled to be initiated into the club on Saturday. To be a member of the club, one must have been at Dayton for ten or more years.
