Canton's Charlie Carpenter Paces Deacons Over UNC

By CLIFTON METCALF (Special To The Mountaineer)

WAKE FOREST, Oct. 22 — "Chunkin'" Charlie Carpenter, former Canton star, played a major role in giving the Tar Heels of the University of North Carolina a 25-0 trouncing on the Baptist Hollow Flats this afternoon. Carpenter looked like he did on hundreds of occasions as he ran, passed and kicked to football fame on Western North Carolina football fields for four years.

The reserve quarterback threw two touchdown passes, and plunged over for the third against the Tar Heels. Carpenter's passes this afternoon accounted for 187 yards out of the total 277 yards rolled up via the air lanes by Wake Forest.

The accurate-armed Carpenter threw 10 passes, with seven being completed giving him a rating of .700 which is almost unheard of in college circles.

A large number of Western Carolina fans were among the 13,000 attending today's game, the last to be played between the two teams in the present stadium, as Wake Forest moves to Winston-Salem

34-Year-Old Man Held In Jail On Charge Of Assault

Algie McKay Fowler, 34-year-old dairy employee, is being held in the Haywood County jail here without bond, charged with criminally assaulting his 13-year-old daughter.

Fowler's daughter, in a signed statement given to Sheriff Fred Y. Campbell, told of the attack in the Fowler home on Howell Street, as her mother, just two days out of the hospital after undergoing a serious operation, looked on helplessly.

Sheriff Campbell said the signed statement was confirmed word for word, by the mother, Fowler, the sheriff said, went home drunk, and shortly thereafter the alleged attack took place.

Sheriff Campbell said the only statement Fowler has made of the alleged attack is: "I was drunk and don't remember anything."

The defendant waived a hearing Friday morning and was bound to the November term of court, which convenes Nov. 21.

The sheriff said two men came to the house immediately after the alleged attack occurred, and on Mrs. Fowler's request, took Fowler out without being aware that anything had happened.

Sheriff Campbell said he was next summer.

Carpenter looked like himself as he ran with the ball, twisting, and swivel-hipping away from tacklers. Carpenter gave an excellent account of himself here this afternoon, and will likely see more action the remainder of the season than heretofore. He's a triple threat every second he has the ball.

Young Canton Marine Dies In California

Marine Pvt. James Kirkpatrick Allen, 19, of Canton died Thursday in the U. S. Naval Hospital at Camp Pendleton, Calif. of injuries sustained in an auto accident the day before.

Prior to joining the Marine Corps two years ago, Pvt. Allen made his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kirkpatrick, of Canton. He attended the Canton schools and was a member of the Canton First Baptist Church. He recently returned to the States after duty in Korea.

Surviving, in addition to the grandparents, are the mother, Mrs. Helen Kirkpatrick Kelly of Toxoca, Ga.; the father, James K. Allen of New York City; a half-brother, Wayne, of Toxoca; and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Albert Allen of Pensacola, N. C.

Funeral services will be held in the Canton Presbyterian Church Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Clayton Lime, pastor, and the Rev. Ben L. Ray will officiate. Interment will be in Mt. Moriah Cemetery where military rites will be conducted by the Canton Post of the VFW.

Pallbearers will be Jimmy Hawkins, Bill Anderson, Bobby Smathers, Craig Whitmire, Jr., Jimmy McElrath, and Ray Davis. Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will be flower bearers.

The body arrived from California this afternoon and will remain at Wells Funeral Home until 30 minutes prior to the service when it will lie in state at the church.

In the past 20 years, the number of hogs on North Carolina farms has more than doubled — from 519,714 hogs in 1930 to 1,231,121 in 1950.
