

Bethel High Blue Demon Tales

Last Thursday morning when I walked into the old gymnasium I found, much to my surprise, that everyone was sitting quietly looking at an open book in their hands. They seemed to be in deep concentration concerning some dire tragedy that had recently taken place.

However when I entered my homeroom, much to my astonishment and horror, I learned that exams were here. Walking into Bethel School during exam time is like walking through an abandoned cemetery at midnight.

The faculty members stay in their homes at night for two weeks dreaming up the catastrophic questionnaire. Every morning when a member of the faculty entered his room, the door was opened by some gallant student with two F's and a C—the first three grading periods. When he reaches his desk, which is hard to find because of the huge array of flowers and fruits which adorn the entire top, he is seated by a young lady who has acquired two C's and an F during the course of the year and had not studied the night before.

But now, trials is written to that period of trials and tribulations which interrupt our pleasant venture in school twice each year to make half of the student body nervous wrecks (the other half has no nerves).

For the seniors it is a time of reminiscing over the many accomplishments they have made and the many happy years they have spent while at "Dear Old Bethel." But for the underclassman it is a nostalgic scene, not because they are thinking someday of leaving their Alma Mater, but because they are wondering if the time will ever come when they can dust off their hooves and journey to greener pastures.

Rev. Daniel Lane To Fill Rockwood Church Pulpit

The Rev. Daniel Lane of Lake Junaluska will fill the pulpit of the Rockwood Church Sunday morning. The pastor, the Rev. L. B. George and Mrs. George, are visiting a sister in Illinois for about two weeks.

Quite a number of visitors attended the Sunday night services to hear Dr. H. A. Matthews speak.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Jarrett Williamson Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Sherrill Jimison presiding. Mrs. John Whitted, Spiritual Life chairman was in charge of the devotional and the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hannah and children of Forest City spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McCrary.

Phillip Edwards Is Example Of A True Friend

True friendship comes rarely and is a priceless gift.

Such friendship was manifested by Phillip Edwards, young son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of Bethel, when he left his family and school to accompany his buddy, LeRoy George, to a hospital in Nashville where the latter underwent an unsuccessful heart operation.

Phillip stayed by his friend until he went into the operating room. The two boys played, told jokes, and laughed together as they had on many happier occasions.

In speaking of Phillip's loyalty, LeRoy's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. L. B. George said, "There is no way to estimate the help Phillip was to LeRoy and to us, too, and we will be forever grateful to him and the Edwards family."

LeRoy died shortly after the operation.
