Painting To Form Basis For Bethel Sermon Theme

A painting given to the Bethel Methodist Church several years ago by Mrs. R. T. Houts when her son was pastor will serve as the basis for the theme of the morning service to be conducted by Dr. L. B. Hayes, pastor, Sunday.
Dr. Hayes said the painting pictures the "Great Shepherd out on the mountain wild and bare," seeking the lost sheep, while in the background the bird of prey hovers and the sheep struggles in the brambles on the edge of the cliff.
Dr. Hayes will preach on "The Shepherd of the Black Sheep," and the choir under the direction of Miss Maude Worley will present "Ninety and Nine".

Ice Cream Operation

STORRS, Conn. The student was treated as an emergency case because his white shirt was bespattered with red—strawberry flavored cream from the university's ice cream making department.

Wife Preservers

It is a good idea to keep two clothes hampers. Instead of washing one, wash the other can be used for washed but unwashed articles.

The Best Part Of The Meal

Look for this Flour

It's fresh flour. Really fresh, because it's milled in Asheville and rushed to your grocer in Chesterfield's own trucks. This fresher flour gives you lighter, fluffier biscuits. Tender cakes... just bursting with the richer, sweeter flavor you'll find only in Chesterfield. Buy it in the bag with the green four leaf clover.
