Project leader reports were given on Home Gardens by Mrs. W. F. Swift, Food Conservation by Mrs. R. J. Fowler, Home Beautification by Mrs. Thad Chafin, and Household hints by Mrs. Scott Maxwell.

A demonstration on the "Wise Selection of Household Equipment" was given by Miss Mary Cornwell.

Guests were Mrs. Tom Ray, Mrs. Lissie Noland, Mrs. J. I. Kizer, Mrs. Bolin Burress, and Mrs. Charles McCall.

Births

New arrivals at the Haywood County Hospital include:

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Lonzo Woody of Hazelwood on January 30.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White of Waynesville on January 31.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Nave of Waynesville on February 1.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Owenby of Canton on February 2.

Laurie Hannah has returned to State College after spending a mid-semester holiday with his parents.

Calling for a rededication to the principles of "the just pride of Patriotism," Miss Gertrude S. Carraway, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has asked for nationwide observance of February as American History Month.

"Americanism," said Miss Carraway, "is faith, belief that man, with God's help, is capable of self-rule. Based on eternal principles of freedom and justice, it is timeless—just as essential in this age as in the past. Only by a thorough understanding of the principles on which this nation was built, can we understand the spirit of America and pass on to our posterity 'Freedom's Holy Light'."

The National Society, D.A.R., Miss Carraway declared, does everything within its power to keep green the memory of George Washington, whose birthday falls this month, and that of the other patriots who helped make this country free.

The Memorial Bell Tower dedicated by the D.A.R. at Valley Forge, Pa., in 1953, to proclaim D.A.R. faith in America, has a fine statue of George Washington by Sculptor C. Paul Jennewein and a beautiful Rose Window depicting Washington at prayer. A nine-foot bronze statue of George Washington by Pompeo Luigi Coppini, the first in all Texas, has been erected by the Texas State Society, D.A.R., on the grounds of the University of Texas.

A noble portrait of George Washington by Rembrandt Peale hangs in the D.A.R. Library, one of the three largest genealogical libraries in the United States. Many other Washington and Washington family items are in the D.A.R. Museum at 1776 D Street, NW, Washington, D. C.

What is probably the most famous personal letter George Washington ever wrote, a detailed instruction on how the education of his stepson, John Parke Custis, should be conducted, is in the permanent collection of the D.A.R. Museum. D.A.R. Archives have a valuable and hitherto unpublished letter of George Washington dealing with the surrender of the British.

"But more important than any of these physical reminders of Washington," Miss Carraway said, "is the D.A.R. effort to keep alive the principles of George Washington—honesty, integrity, loyalty, and unswerving devotion to duty."

"That is why the D.A.R. has as a special project the encouragement of history teaching in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Last year, the D.A.R. gave 2426 Certificates of Award to schoolchildren and 2750 History Medals for special excellence in American History, besides many other prizes."

Miss Louise Ballard, vice president of the North Carolina Garden Club, is attending a meeting of the executive board of the Garden Club in Pinehurst. She was accompanied to Pinehurst by her mother and sister, Mrs. L. J. Ballard and Miss Ray Ballard.
